

Welcome To Year

51

There's been a great deal accomplished in the past 50 years but we're not resting on our laurels because TOMORROW brings amazing opportunities and challenges.

Working together improves QUALITY of LIFE for everyone.

So, let's get into what's been happening.

#1. A reminder that members can choose to take advantage of a 'bulk pricing and service' offer for propane. Get your membership now and start saving!

#2. We recently did a Q & A with Mayor Sue Carleton from Georgian Bluffs. Topics ranged from shore line road allowance to fibre-optic installation plans.

#3. We're updating our connections list so ALL members receive IVDAARA communication pieces. Thank you to all who have completed the quick form and returned it... Didn't see it? Check out the link below for more info.

#4. The website is Under Renovation.
Just some decluttering before winter arrives.
Newsletters will be posted and archived.

#5. Check out our the Facebook page.

#6. Propane Group Members will have received details/instructions for this season's rate and contact info. Questions?
See contact info at end of newsletter.

Hey!

Where's My High Speed Internet?

Use the link at the end of the newsletter to connect to the fibre-optic internet projects and see who the provider is in your area.

Zoom in on the map to EXPAND and find your location then click on the coloured line - an information box will appear.

Presto - there's the info.

Thank you to the Island View Drive and Area Ratepayers' Association for their generous donation to the Kemble Playground Project!

Supporting Community Projects

Ken McPherson presents IVDAARA playground donation to Ashley Feltis.

Proudly continuing to organize community events and support local charities, organizations and AMAZING community projects.

Got an idea for an event? Let us know.

IVDAARA provides a Collective Voice at local Council and other levels of government. Click here for the recent Q&A with Mayor Sue Carelton.
