Parish Mission: Loving Christ, loving others:

To Proclaim the Gospel of Christ to our local Community in word, deed, and truth.

A Special Welcome to our Bishop

Next Sunday, August 23, we will have a very special and joyful occasion at Holy Angels Parish in Globe. We are blessed to welcome our Bishop, the Most Rev. James A. Misko, to Holy Angels for his first visit to our parish. Bishop James A. Misko will celebrate the 11:00 AM Mass with us.

I warmly invite all our parishioners from Holy Angels and, if you are able, our brothers and sisters from Sr. Charles, to come and welcome our Bishop with joy and gratitude. Following Mass, we will gather together in the Holy Angels Parish Hall for lunch. This will be more than simply a meal. It will be an opportunity for us to come together as one parish family, to meet our Bishop personally, to speak with him, and to share fellowship with one another.

If you would like to bring a dish, dessert, or something to share, please feel free to bring it. Your generosity will help make our gathering a beautiful celebration of our parish family. Let us come together next Sunday with joyful hearts and give our Bishop a warm Holy Angels welcome!

May God bless our Bishop, bless our two parish families, and continue to guide and strengthen us as we seek to build communities where everyone knows that there is a place for them at God's table.

A WELCOME THAT HAS NO BORDERS

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 16, 2026

Dear Parishioners of Holy Angels and St. Charles,

Today's readings give us a beautiful reminder that God's love has no borders. God does not look at where we come from, what our background is, or what mistakes we have made. He looks at the heart that seeks Him.

In today's Gospel, a Canaanite woman comes to Jesus with a heart full of faith and a desperate prayer: "Lord, help me." She is an outsider. She is not one of the people who traditionally followed Jesus. Yet she refuses to give up. Even when Jesus seems silent, she continues to trust. Even when others might have told her to go away, she remains at His feet. And finally Jesus says to her: "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish."

What a beautiful message for us today. Sometimes we come to Jesus with the same prayer: "Lord, help me." We may be carrying worries about our children, our families, our health, our finances, our relationships, or our future. Sometimes we pray and God seems silent. Sometimes we wonder if He has heard us.

The Canaanite woman teaches us: Do not give up. Keep praying. Keep trusting. Keep coming to Jesus. Her faith reminds us that God hears the cry of every person. The prophet Isaiah tells us that God's house is meant to be "a house of prayer for all peoples." That means there is room at God's table for everyone.

As members of Holy Angels and St. Charles, may we become people who make others feel that same welcome. May our churches be places where people who are hurting find comfort, people who are searching find faith, people who feel forgotten find friendship, and people who have wandered away find their way home.

Our faith is not only about coming to church; it is about becoming the face, hands, and heart of Jesus to one another.

And today I want to leave you with one simple prayer:

"Lord Jesus, help me."

When life is difficult, pray it.

When you are afraid, pray it.

When your family is struggling, pray it.

When you feel alone, pray it.

When you don't know what to do, pray it.

And when life is filled with blessings, pray it with gratitude.

Jesus never tires of hearing the sincere cry of a faithful heart.

Will you be
THE HANDS AND FEET
Of Jesus?
