Parish Mission: Loving Christ, loving others:

To Proclaim the Gospel of Christ to our local Community in word, deed, and truth.

THE MERCY WE RECEIVE, THE MERCY WE GIVE

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time – September 13, 2026

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

This Sunday, the Word of God speaks to us about one of the most beautiful—and sometimes most difficult—things Jesus asks of us: forgiveness. In the Gospel, Peter comes to Jesus and asks, “Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive?” Peter probably thought he was being generous when he suggested forgiving seven times. But Jesus gives an answer that goes far beyond counting: “Not seven times but seventy-seven times.” Jesus is not asking us to keep a record of how many times we have forgiven someone. He is teaching us that forgiveness should not have a limit. Why? Because God's mercy toward us has no limit.

Every one of us has needed forgiveness. We have all made mistakes. We have said words we wish we could take back. We have hurt people, sometimes knowingly and sometimes without realizing it. We have disappointed those we love. And yet, when we come before God with a humble heart, He does not turn us away. He welcomes us with mercy. The responsorial Psalm reminds us: “The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger and rich in compassion.”

What a beautiful description of our God! If God is so patient with us, how can we refuse to be patient with one another? The first reading from Sirach gives us a very practical message: do not hold on to anger and resentment. Anger that we carry for a long time can become a heavy burden in our hearts. Sometimes we continue to carry an old hurt for years. We remember what someone did to us, what someone said, or how someone treated us. We may even think, “I will never forgive that person.”

But Jesus tells us today: Let it go. Forgive from the heart.

Forgiveness does not mean that what happened was acceptable. It does not mean that we pretend the hurt never happened. It does not mean that we allow someone to continue hurting us. Forgiveness means that we place our pain into God's hands and refuse to allow anger and resentment to control our hearts. Sometimes forgiveness is a decision we have to make again and again.

Perhaps there is someone in our family we have not spoken to for a long time. Perhaps there is a friend we have lost because of an argument. Perhaps there is someone sitting in our own community whom we have avoided because of something that happened in the past.

Jesus invites us today to take the first step. Make the phone call. Say the words “I am sorry.” Say the words “I forgive you.” Begin again.

Life is too precious to spend it carrying yesterday's anger. St. Paul reminds us in the second reading that we belong to the Lord. Whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. Our lives are not meant to be controlled by bitterness, resentment, jealousy, or anger. We belong to Christ. And Christ calls us to become people of mercy.

My dear brothers and sisters, our two parish communities—Holy Angels in Globe and St. Charles in San Carlos—are more than buildings, programs, and schedules. We are a family of faith. Like every family, we have our joys and our struggles. We may sometimes disagree. We may sometimes misunderstand one another. But what holds us together is something greater than our differences: Jesus Christ.

Let us never allow small disagreements to become walls between us. Let us be a parish family where people experience kindness. Let us be a community where people feel welcomed. Let us be people who are willing to listen. Let us be Christians who know how to say, “I am sorry,” and “I forgive you.” And perhaps most importantly, let us remember that we are all in need of God's mercy.

Every time we pray the Our Father, we ask God: “Forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.” Those are beautiful words—but they are also a serious commitment. We are asking God to forgive us as we forgive others. So, this week, let us ask ourselves a simple question: Is there someone I need to forgive?

If a name comes into your heart, do not be afraid. Bring that person to Jesus in prayer. Ask the Lord to heal your heart. Ask Him to give you courage to take the first step.

YOUR GENEROSITY IS ALREADY AT WORK

Funds received through the 2026 Annual Catholic Appeal are already being allocated to serve people, parishes, and ministries throughout Southern Arizona.

- $400,000 toward the formation and support of our seminarians
- $405,000 to Native American and other parishes with limited financial resources
- $350,000 for outreach and assistance to individual and families in need
- $125,000 for the care of our retired priests
- $80,000 to provide spiritual and pastoral care to men and women who are incarcerated
- $2 million to diocesan ministries and services supporting Catholic schools, evangelization, formation, vocations, youth and young adults, and parish life throughout our diocese.
- Another $331,191 is needed so that our shared mission to provide spiritual, pastoral, and charitable care throughout Southern Arizona can be fully supported.

If you have an outstanding pledge, have not yet participated, or would like to make an additional gift, your participation still matters.

Maybe you cannot change the past. But with God's grace, you can change what you carry into the future. Let us not carry anger when Christ offers us peace. Let us not carry resentment when Christ offers us freedom. Let us not carry old wounds when Christ wants to bring healing. The greatest gift we can give ourselves and one another is the gift of forgiveness.

As we gather around the altar this Sunday, let us remember how much God has already forgiven us. And as we receive the Body and Blood of Christ, may His mercy enter our hearts and make us more merciful people.

May Holy Angels Parish and St. Charles Catholic Church always be communities where God's mercy is seen, forgiveness is practiced, wounds are healed, and hearts are brought back together. May we leave Mass this Sunday with a new heart—a heart that does not keep score, a heart that does not hold grudges, but a heart that knows how to love, forgive, and begin again. May God bless you, your families, and our entire parish family. With prayers and blessings,

THE CROSS: THE SIGN OF GOD'S LOVE

September 14

"We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you, because by your Cross you have redeemed the world."

The Catholic Church celebrates the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross on September 14th. The Cross stands at the very heart of our Christian faith. We see it in our churches, in our homes, around our necks, and in the Sign of the Cross that we make every day.

But the Cross is much more than a beautiful religious symbol. The Cross is the greatest sign of God's love for us. When we look at the Cross, we see Jesus stretching out His arms—not in anger, but in love. He gave everything for us. He accepted suffering, rejection, and death so that we might receive forgiveness, hope, and eternal life. The Cross reminds us that God never abandons us in our suffering. Every one of us carries a cross. Sometimes it is sickness. Sometimes it is loneliness. Sometimes it is the loss of someone we love. Sometimes it is family struggles, financial difficulties, disappointment, or uncertainty about the future. There are moments when we may ask, "Lord, why is this happening to me?"

The Cross does not always give us an immediate answer to that question. But it gives us something even more important: It reminds us that Jesus is with us. Jesus knows what it means to suffer. He knows what it means to be misunderstood, rejected, betrayed, and wounded. Therefore, when we carry our own crosses, we never carry them alone. Christ walks with us. And the Cross also teaches us that suffering is not the end of the story.

Good Friday was not the end. The Cross led to the Resurrection. The darkness of the tomb gave way to the light of Easter morning. Death did not have the final word. Love had the final word. Life had the final word. Christ had the final word.

That is why we can look at our own struggles with hope. Whatever cross you may be carrying today, do not lose heart. Your struggle is not invisible to God. Your tears are not forgotten by God. Your prayers are not unheard by God. Your suffering is not meaningless when it is placed into the hands of Christ.

Perhaps someone in our parish community is carrying a very heavy cross today. Perhaps someone is quietly struggling but has not told anyone. Perhaps a family needs encouragement, a grieving person needs comfort, or someone who has lost hope simply needs to hear that God has not forgotten them. Let us be people who help one another carry our crosses. A kind word can lighten someone's burden. A phone call can bring comfort. A prayer can give strength. A helping hand can restore hope. A listening heart can remind someone that they are not alone.

As parish communities of Holy Angels in Globe and St. Charles in San Carlos, may we always be people of the Cross—people who know how to love sacrificially, forgive generously, serve humbly, and remain faithful even in difficult times. When we make the Sign of the Cross, let us never do it hurriedly or without thought. Let us remember what we are saying:

I belong to Christ. Christ loves me. Christ died for me. Christ is with me. And Christ will lead me to eternal life.

On this Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, let us look upon the Cross with renewed faith and say:

"Jesus, I trust in You. Take my burdens. Strengthen me in my struggles. Teach me to love as You loved. And when I am weak, help me remember that Your grace is stronger than my weakness."

May the Holy Cross of Christ be a source of strength for the weary, hope for the discouraged, healing for the wounded, comfort for those who grieve, and courage for all who are struggling.

And may we always remember:

The Cross is not the end. The Cross is the road that leads to Resurrection.

May the Cross of Jesus always stand at the center of our homes, our families, our parish communities, and our hearts.

"By His wounds we are healed; by His Cross we are saved; and through His Resurrection we have hope."

May God bless you and your families, and may the Holy Cross of Jesus guide us always.

CCD CLASSES BEGIN NEXT SUNDAY at HOLY ANGELS!

Growing in Faith, Growing in Christ

Dear Parents and Families of Holy Angels Parish,

We are happy to announce that CCD classes for our children will begin next Sunday!

Our Catholic faith is one of the greatest gifts we can give to our children. Through CCD, our children will learn about Jesus, the Catholic faith, prayer, the Sacraments, the Bible, and how to live as faithful followers of Christ.

We warmly invite all parents to register your children and bring them faithfully to CCD classes. Classes are available for children from Grade 1 through Grade 8. Most importantly, we encourage every family to make Sunday Mass a regular and joyful part of family life. Our children learn not only from their CCD teachers, but also by seeing their parents and families come together each Sunday to worship Jesus and receive Him in the Holy Eucharist.

Dear parents, please give your children the beautiful gift of faith. Bring them to Mass. Bring them to CCD. Pray with them. Walk with them. Help them grow close to Jesus. A child who grows up knowing God's love carries that faith as a blessing throughout life. We look forward to welcoming all our children and families as we begin another beautiful year of growing together in faith!

To register your child or for more information: Mrs. Noemi Hubilla Call or text: (443) 858-0301 or contact the Holy Angels Parish Office. May God bless our children, our families, and our Holy Angels parish community!

"Let the children come to me, and do not prevent them; for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."
Matthew 19:14
