Parish Mission: Loving Christ, loving others:

To Proclaim the Gospel of Christ to our local Community in word, deed, and truth.

God's Grace Is Greater Than Our Calculations

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

This Sunday, the Word of God invites us to look at our lives—and at one another—with a different heart. In the Gospel, Jesus tells us the beautiful parable of the workers in the vineyard. Some begin working early in the morning. Others come later. Some arrive near the end of the day. Yet, when evening comes, the landowner gives them the same generous wage. Naturally, those who worked all day begin to complain: "You have made them equal to us." But the landowner reminds them that he has not been unfair. He has simply been generous.

This Gospel teaches us something very important: God's love is not a competition. Sometimes we look at another person and think, "Why does God bless them?" We may compare our family with another family, our parish with another parish, our work with someone else's work, or our life with someone else's life. But God does not ask us to compare.

He asks us to trust Him. The first reading gives us a beautiful reminder:

"My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord."

How often we try to understand everything God is doing! We wonder why certain things happen. We wonder why some prayers seem to take so long to be answered. We wonder why one person receives an opportunity while another has to wait.

But God's ways are higher than our ways. Sometimes what we see as a delay is actually God preparing us. Sometimes what we see as a closed door is actually God protecting us. And sometimes what we think is too late is exactly the moment when God's grace begins to work. My dear brothers and sisters, there is also a beautiful message here for our two parish communities.

Holy Angels Parish and St. Charles Catholic Church are families of faith. Each of us has a place in God's vineyard. Some have served the Church for many years. Others are just beginning their journey. Some have been active in parish life for decades. Others may be returning to Mass after many years away. Some are strong in faith today; others are struggling and simply trying to take one more step toward God.

There is room for everyone in God's vineyard. Let us never say, "You don't belong here." Instead, let us say: "Come. There is a place for you. Come and walk with us. Come and grow with us. Come and experience the love of Jesus."

St. Paul reminds us that whether we live or die, we belong to Christ. That is the foundation of our hope. So, as we begin this new week, let us stop comparing, stop keeping score, and stop measuring God's blessings against someone else's blessings. Instead, let us be grateful.

Grateful for another day. Grateful for our families. Grateful for our faith.

Grateful for our parish communities.

Grateful for every person God has placed in our lives.

And when God blesses someone else, let us learn to say: "Thank You, Lord, for blessing my brother and sister." Because when one member of the family is blessed, the whole family can rejoice.

My dear parishioners of Holy Angels and St. Charles, God is still calling each of us to His vineyard.

It is never too early. It is never too late.

Perhaps today is the day to come back to confession.

Perhaps today is the day to forgive someone.

Perhaps today is the day to return to Sunday Mass faithfully.

Perhaps today is the day to volunteer, to pray, to encourage someone, or simply to begin again. Whatever our past may be, God is still calling us.

God,
I can't say it in words...
Can you please just listen through my heart.

And His invitation is always filled with mercy: "Come and work in my vineyard." Let us answer that invitation with joyful hearts. May our two parish communities continue to grow—not by comparing ourselves with one another, but by working together, praying together, forgiving one another, and helping one another become closer to Christ.

And may we always remember:

God does not measure us by how early we arrived. He rejoices that we came. May the Lord bless our families, bless Holy Angels Parish, bless St. Charles Catholic Church, and bless every person who walks through our doors seeking hope, healing, and a deeper relationship with Jesus.

May we never stop trusting in the generosity of our loving God.

God bless you all, and have a beautiful and blessed Sunday.

Fr. George

September 21
Feast of Saint Matthew, Apostle and Evangelist
"Jesus Still Calls Us"

On September 21, the Church joyfully celebrates the feast of St. Matthew, Apostle and Evangelist. Matthew was a tax collector—a man whom many people looked down upon and considered a sinner. He probably never imagined that one day his name would be among the Apostles of Jesus or that his words would become part of the Gospel proclaimed throughout the world.

But everything changed when Jesus passed by and simply said: "Follow me." Matthew did not give Jesus a long explanation. He did not say, "Let me change my life first." He simply got up and followed Him. What a beautiful reminder for all of us!

Jesus does not call only perfect people. Jesus calls ordinary people with imperfect pasts and gives them a new beginning. Perhaps sometimes we think, "I am not good enough for God." Perhaps we remember our mistakes and think our past is too heavy.

St. Matthew tells us: Your past does not have to be the end of your story. When Matthew said yes to Jesus, his life was transformed. The man who once collected taxes became a disciple. The man whom others rejected became an instrument of God's mercy. And the man who was once sitting at his table eventually became a messenger of the Good News to the whole world.

Jesus is still walking through our lives today. He still says: "Follow me." He calls us in our families. He calls us in our parish communities. He calls us when we are working, when we are struggling, and even when we feel unworthy.

The question is not whether we are perfect. The question is: Are we willing to get up and follow Jesus? As we celebrate St. Matthew, let us ask for his intercession that the Lord may give us the courage to leave behind whatever keeps us from Him and the faith to begin again.

May St. Matthew pray for the families of Holy Angels Parish and St. Charles Catholic Church, and may his example remind us that one "yes" to Jesus can change an entire life.

St. Matthew, Apostle and Evangelist, pray for us!

OCTOBER ROSARY in honor of Blessed Virgin Mary hosted by St. Francis Assisi for the Gila/Pinal Vicariate at 490 W. Main Street - Superior, Ariz.

Mass is to begin at 10:00 am

All are INVITED

COME AND ADORE JESUS

"Come to Me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest."

— Matthew 11:28

Dear Parish Family of Holy Angels and St. Charles,

There is no greater gift than being able to spend time in the presence of Jesus truly present in the Blessed Sacrament. In the silence of Eucharistic Adoration, we come before Jesus just as we are—with our joys, our worries, our families, our struggles, our hopes, and our prayers. Sometimes we do not know what to say.

That is okay.

Simply being with Jesus is a prayer. Come and sit with Him. Come and talk to Him. Come and listen to Him. Come and place your family in His loving hands. Come and offer Him your intentions and the needs of those you love. When we kneel before the Blessed Sacrament, we are not alone. We are in the presence of Jesus. He knows our hearts. He knows our pain. He knows our needs even before we speak.

We should develop a special love for Eucharistic Adoration. Make it a part of your spiritual life. Bring your children. Bring your families. Invite a friend. Even one hour with Jesus can bring peace to a troubled heart and renew our faith and hope. We may not always see the miracle immediately, but God is working in the silence. He changes hearts, strengthens families, heals wounds, gives courage, and brings us closer to Himself.

Please come and adore Jesus!

St. Charles Catholic Church – San Carlos - Every Thursday

5:30 PM – 6:30 PM

Holy Angels Parish – Globe - Every Friday | 4:00 PM – 5:00 PM

Let us make these hours a special time for our parish families to come together before Jesus.

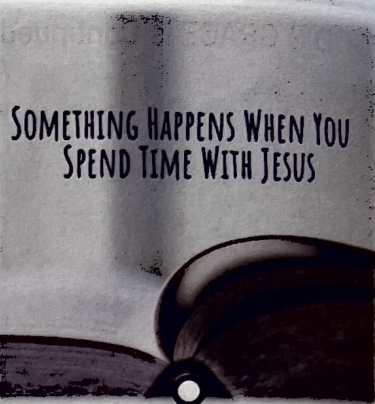

Bring your intentions. Bring your loved ones. Bring your burdens. Bring your heart.

Jesus is waiting for you.

"Could you not watch one hour with me?" — Matthew 26:40

Come. Kneel before Him. Adore Him. Trust Him.

Let Jesus touch your heart and transform your life.
