General Price List

Prices effective October 15, 2025, and subject to change without notice.

The goods and services shown below are those we can provide for our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing in the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

To lose someone you love is a devastating experience. The trauma can influence the decisions made. It is important to be realistic about the expenditure. The decisions made should reflect the life of the deceased and the family but stay within your budget. We have options for every budget. Thank you for the honor and privilege of serving you and your family at this difficult and important time. To provide the best service possible to you & your family, payment is due at the time of arrangements. If an estate will ultimately take care of funeral expenses, you must select a method of payment below and seek reimbursement.

For your convenience, we accept the following methods of payment: Cash, Check, Credit/Debit or Insurance Assignment of a verified policy. Cash Advance Items are charges from Third Parties such as the crematory fee, burial permit, newspapers, clergy, certified death certificates, flowers, etc. and are not included in our prices.

Basic Services

Basic Services of Funeral Director & Staff *# Our charge includes funeral counseling, necessary arrangements, recording vital statistics, securing permits, filing & obtaining death certificates and other forms and claims, preparation of necessary notices, and coordination of service plans with parties involved in the final disposition of the deceased. This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the funeral arrangements you select. (This fee is already included in our charges for direct cremations, immediate burials and forwarding and receiving remains.)	$1495
Embalming *# Except in certain special cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary, however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with a viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as a direct cremation or immediate burial.	$395
