Clergy Message

God's call always reaches farther than we imagine. After nearly seventy years in captivity, Isaiah speaks a word of hope to the exiled people in Babylon. God declares, "I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth." Israel is reminded that they are chosen not for themselves alone, but to be servants of the Lord—bearers of salvation for all peoples.

In Paul's first letter to the Corinthians, we see this servant mission unfolding. Paul addresses the community in Corinth as the Church of God, "sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be holy." Despite the social tensions and moral challenges of their time, this young Church—made up of both Jewish and Gentile believers—would grow into a vibrant witness of the Gospel. God continues to work through imperfect people who are willing to respond to His call.

In today's Gospel, John the Baptist offers his profound confession: "Behold, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world." John recognizes in Jesus the fulfillment of the Passover lamb of Exodus—whose blood marked Israel for protection—and the suffering servant who would offer His life for others.

John then bears witness to the moment the Spirit descends upon Jesus "like a dove" at His baptism. This revelation confirms Jesus as the Son of God and marks the beginning of His public ministry. In the same way, our own baptism marks the beginning of our life in Christ, sending us forth as disciples who carry His light into the world.

As we reflect on these readings, let us pray that we do not lose heart when the world feels chaotic or when we feel spiritually exiled. May we remember the promise given to us in baptism: that God's salvation reaches even to the ends of the earth. May we respond to this call to deepen our relationship with Jesus and share God's message with others.

Deacon Ray

El llamado de Dios siempre llega más lejos de lo que imaginamos.

Después de casi setenta años en cautiverio, Isaías habla una palabra de esperanza a los exiliados en Babilonia. Dios declara: «Te haré luz a las naciones, para que mi salvación llegue hasta los confines de la tierra». A Israel se le recuerda que no son elegidos solo por sí mismos, sino para ser siervos del Señor—portadores de la salvación para todos los pueblos.

En la primera carta de San Pablo a los Corintios, vemos que esta misión de siervo se desarrolla. San Pablo se dirige a la comunidad de Corinto como la Iglesia de Dios, "santificada en Cristo Jesús, llamada a ser santa". A pesar de las tensiones sociales y los desafíos morales de su tiempo, esta joven Iglesia—compuesta por creyentes judíos y gentiles—crecería en un vibrante testimonio del Evangelio. Dios continúa trabajando a través de personas imperfectas que están dispuestas a responder a Su llamado.

En el Evangelio de hoy, Juan el Bautista ofrece su profunda confesión: "He aquí, el Cordero de Dios que quita el pecado del mundo." Juan reconoce en Jesús el cumplimiento del cordero de Pascua del Éxodo—cuya sangre marcó a Israel para su protección—y el siervo sufriente que ofrecería su vida por los demás.

Juan entonces da testimonio del momento en que el Espíritu desciende sobre Jesús "como paloma" en su bautismo. Esta revelación confirma a Jesús como el Hijo de Dios y marca el comienzo de su ministerio público. De la misma manera, nuestro propio bautismo marca el comienzo de nuestra vida en Cristo, enviándonos como discípulos que llevamos Su luz al mundo.

Al reflexionar sobre estas lecturas, recemos para no perder el ánimo cuando el mundo se siente caótico o cuando nos sentimos espiritualmente exiliados. Que recordemos la promesa que nos fue dada en el bautismo: que la salvación de Dios llega incluso hasta los confines de la tierra. Que podamos responder a este llamado para profundizar nuestra relación con Jesús y compartir el mensaje de Dios con los demás.

Amado San Juan Diego, tú que fuiste elegido por Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe como instrumento para mostrar a tu gente y al mundo que el camino del cristiano es uno de amor, compasión, comprensión, valores, sacrificios, arrepentimiento de nuestros pecados, aprecio y respeto por la creación de Dios, y por encima de todo, uno de humildad y obediencia. Tú, quien ahora sabemos que estás en el Reino de nuestro Señor y cerca de nuestra Madre, sé nuestro ángel y protégenos, quédate con nosotros mientras luchamos en esta vida moderna sin saber, la mayor parte del tiempo, donde fijar nuestras prioridades. Ayúdanos a orar a Dios, por medio del Corazón de nuestra Señora de Guadalupe hacia el Corazón de Jesús, para obtener los dones del Espíritu Santo y usarlos para el bien de la humanidad y el bien de nuestra Iglesia. Amén.*

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee,
O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful.
O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph,
to us too, show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen.

A saint for the children and youth

O God, You have given us in St. Carlo Acutis a model of virtue and holiness for our digital age. We thank you for making him an inspiration to young people through his devotion to the Eucharist, his love for the poor, and his ability to use modern means to spread the Gospel.

St. Carlo Acutis, friend of God and servant of the poor, intercede for us before the throne of grace. Help us to recognize Christ's presence in the Eucharist, to use our talents in service of others, and to navigate the digital world with wisdom and charity.

Like you, may each of us proclaim that "the Eucharist is my highway to heaven" and strive to live in constant communion with Our Lord. Guide us to use technology as a tool for evangelization and to bring others closer to Christ through our witness.

Through your intercession, we ask for...

[make your request here].

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Catechism of the Catholic Church Jesus and Israel

592 Jesus did not abolish the Law of Sinai, but rather fulfilled it (cf Mt 5:17-19) with such perfection (cf Jn 8:46) that he revealed its ultimate meaning (cf Mt 5:33) and redeemed the transgressions against it (cf Heb 9:15).

593 Jesus venerated the Temple by going up to it for the Jewish feasts of pilgrimage, and with a jealous love he loved this dwelling of God among men. the Temple prefigures his own mystery. When he announces its destruction, it is as a manifestation of his own execution and of the entry into a new age in the history of salvation, when his Body would be the definitive Temple.

594 Jesus performed acts, such as pardoning sins, that manifested him to be the Savior God himself (cf Jn 5:16-18). Certain Jews, who did not recognize God made man (cf Jn 1:14), saw in him only a man who made himself God (Jn 10:33), and judged him as a blasphemer.
