

GRADES 2-4

“Glitter Catastrophe”

Second Place Winner!

By: Georgia G.R., Age 9, Louisiana, USA

Description: A pageant contestant can't find her glitter

Genre: Comedic

(Backstage with other contestants right before the pageant begins.)

Hey girlies! It's Pageant Day! (to mom)

Mom! Where is my glitter? I can't find my glitter!

In 8 minutes I have to perform in front of the WHOLE WORLD and SEVEN JUDGES! Did you move it? I put it right here! By my mirror! I know I did! You know I can't be pageant-public without my glitter! I'll be the laughingstock of the WHOLE PAGEANT WORLD!

I have my dress, my shoes, my hair is done, but without the glitter I'm nothing at all!

A Beauty Queen has to shimmer and shine!

Mom, I will NOT “SHINE FROM THE INSIDE!”

THE JUDGES CAN'T SEE MY INSIDES!!!

1-minute cut • approx. 105 spoken words