

"I Didn't Do It!"

Third Place Winner!

By: Jacob Kenyon, Age 13, Arizona, USA

Description: A kid denies breaking a window

Genre: Comedic

You can't ground me! I didn't do it! Just because I'm wearing a baseball glove does not mean that I broke the window. Sure, I have a history of this kind of thing, but I'm telling you the truth, Dad! This time it wasn't me.

I was out here minding my own business, tossing the ball up in the air, and then Mom came out and asked if I wanted to play catch. I said yes. She's not very good at baseball, but she likes to play with me. She threw the ball way over there and it broke the window. So, you see, it wasn't me. It was your wife. I guess you'll have to ground her.

1-minute cut • approx. 118 spoken words