These days, I find myself walking around in a state of curmudgeonliness. Is that even a word? If not, it should be. Andy Rooney, the late journalist for CBS and a fixture on 60 minutes has always been my image of a curmudgeon. Merriam-Webster defines curmudgeon as a crusty, ill tempered, and usually old man. Part of my grumpiness stems from the now constant fluctuation in the temperature, 50 degrees one day and 20 the next. The other part of my being crusty is feeling like we have lived a whole year in roughly 30 days. The seemingly never-ending list of domestic and international crises can wear down even the most positive person. The constant hammering and yammering leaves me at times feeling like there is nothing good or notable to point to for light in a period of darkness.

That is when I must stop, breathe and simply look around and see the helpers...the ones making a real difference. Mister Rogers, an ordained Presbyterian Pastor and host of PBS' Mister Rogers' neighborhood gave that illustration after 9/11 using those exact words: "When I was a boy and I would see scary things in the news, my mother would say to me, Look for the helpers. You will always find people helping." He is right, there are always people helping if we just look.

Our Souper Bowl of Caring raised over $1200 for La Cares, our local food pantry. Thank you to everyone who brought food, those who donated and ate, as well as youth who helped set up and clean-up for the event. Many of you have brought blankets, warm jackets and other winter items for Pathways shelter in Espanola. Our Thrift Shop is always bustling on Wednesday mornings providing important secondhand items for purchase. The volunteers work during the week to make sure things are cleaned, priced and ready for sale when the doors open at 8:30am. Those are three quick examples of helpers who are helping in our midst. Some large group efforts, some are small group tasks, but each is a light that shines. So, the next time something unforeseen and unpleasant happens remember to look around you, or better yet be a part of the helpers who stand out by their efforts. Our next churchwide event for helping will be our Mexico Mission Donor's Dessert Fundraiser, Sunday March 1st in Graves Hall at 3:00pm. All funds raised will go towards our annual spring break trip to Puerto Peñasco, Mexico to build houses with Amor Ministries. See YOU there!

Blessings,
Keith

Worship

Dinner 5:15 PM      Worship 6:00PM

Join us for Rose Street Worship on Thursday evening, February 19th. It will be a time to gather as family, friends and neighbors for a casual dinner and uplifting worship service. The service will be more contemporary in style and last around 45 minutes. But the experience will feed and inspire our spirits until Sunday and beyond!

Graves Hall, United Church of Los Alamos

The United Church is sponsoring Mexico Mission 2026 – a Spring Break trip for High School youth and adults to Puerto Peñasco, Sonora, Mexico. Our goal is to raise $20,000 for building materials and Amor fees to build houses for two families.

You are invited to attend the Donors' Dessert to help meet this goal. Donations are still very much appreciated, even if you are unable to attend the DONORS' DESSERT! Donations can be made by cash, check, or Venmo (find us at @UCLAgiving).

Please make checks payable to The United Church of Los Alamos, with "Mexico 2026" in the memo line.

Men's Koffee Klatch

All men of The United Church are invited to coffee, refreshments, and fellowship Thursday mornings at 9:30am. There are no lesson plans, no required or suggested topics, no devotions, no leaders, but there is a lot of fun! Hosting duties are passed around within the group. The wit and wisdom shared cover all sorts of topics and the discussions have proven extremely interesting, informative, and supportive. We laugh a lot! We will be meeting in the CE Lounge, or you can join from home with Zoom.

Please contact the Church Office to be included on the Zoom link email.

AGOG, our grandparenting group, is open to any adults who are concerned about their role in sharing their faith, love, stories, and expectations with the next generations. We chat about traditions, pray for our grandchildren, and listen to, resolve or empathize with both thorny and gratifying issues of grandparenting. Each meeting is at 12:15 PM on the first Sunday of the month we gather in the CE Lounge for an hour of shared wisdom.

Pack a bag lunch and join us!

Questions? Please contact Diana Little or Irene Powell

"Love" is a catch-all word in our culture, unlike Greek and Hebrew's descriptive names, where God's LOVE is so much more than others. God's Love can bring unexpected hope and peace. Kate Bowler felt most whole and acutely aware of God's love on her worst days fighting very aggressive cancer. God's LOVE is so much more than she imagined. Bowler's unexpected survival led her to reach out, in books and podcasts, to others struggling.

Romans 8:28-39 is testimony that Paul's strength and willingness to endure major difficulties came from the physically unseen Spirit's intercession, "with groans that words cannot express." (Vs.26) Paul's HOPE in God, gave him confidence that nothing, even death could separate us from the Love of God revealed to us in Christ.

Author Gregory Boyle realized he did not have to choose between an all-loving God and an all-powerful God. "God's power is found in the sustaining love that is always extended our way, energizing us and giving us hope'... 'We can feel God leaning into our very own well-being and longing for it to flourish'. ...'The power is in the loving.'" From CHERISHED BELONGING

Our country's current divisions, hate and physical mistreatment of people are polar opposite to the second commandment to Love your neighbor as yourself. Jesus told a story of a foreigner, a hated Samaritan, rescuing an assaulted Jew while local religious people walked on the other side. That despised foreigner was a model "neighbor" to the wounded man. I see acts of love as part of God's LOVE, whether the actor is aware or not.

We are invited to love what God loves, which is quite different from doing things to please God. The prayer of our life is to lean toward the God of love and say, "Give me your eyes. Then all we'll see is glorious." Gregory Boyle

God, We're so tired...

A PRAYER FOR THE TIRED, ANGRY ONES by LauraJean Truman

Grant us the courage to keep showing up to impossible battles, trusting that it is our commitment to faithfulness, and not our obsession with results, that will bring in your shalom,

Grant us the vulnerability to risk loving our difficult and complicated neighbor, rejecting the lie that some people are made more in the image of God than others.... Keep us fiercely kind.

AMEN

Missions & Service Board

“Life is Bittersweet” shares Dr. Lyn Westman in her new book by that name. Her memoir is very personal, revealing a very traumatic first half of life which was transformed into zeal to serve all people and totally trust God. It speaks of her personal faith and growth, love for her son, her work with countries, groups, and individuals where Mental Health care is absent or rare. Her teaching books and guidance share simple truths for helping others that she learned from Universities, Seminary and life experiences. She deeply cares for people, trains groups to serve and especially loves children. Lyn revisits those that she can, even in dangerous places.

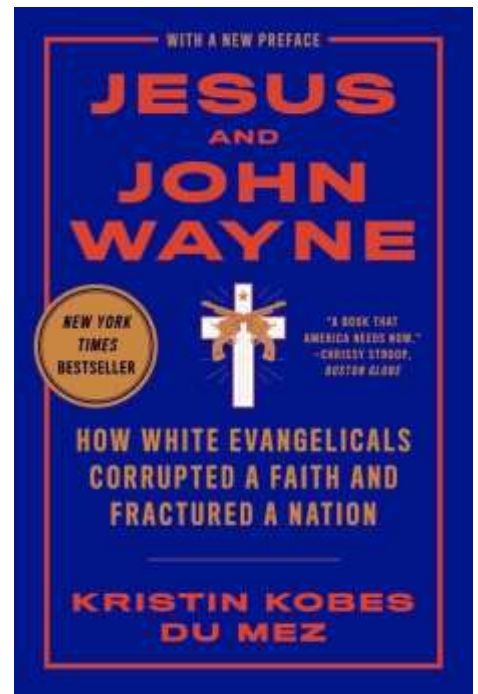

You can borrow a copy of this book from the Church Library or find it at your favorite local bookstore.
