FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Our Lady of Guadalupe & the Feast of Abundance

In this Sunday's readings, God invites us to a feast that costs nothing but satisfies completely. In the Gospel, Jesus multiplies five loaves and two fish, revealing a divine generosity that leaves twelve overflowing baskets.

Centuries ago, Our Lady of Guadalupe appeared in Mexico as a living icon of this exact Eucharistic mystery. On her tunic, she wears a black maternity ribbon, identifying her as a mother carrying a child. She reminds us that the ultimate "Bread of Life" we hunger for is her Son, Jesus, made present to us in the Holy Eucharist. Just as the disciples distributed the bread to the hungry crowds, Mary brings Christ to a broken world, offering us a free, inexhaustible banquet of grace.

We will continue to explore this subject at the Masses weekend. Thank you for positive response to learning about St. Charbel Makhlouf and St. Padre Pio, which we will continue to do so by offering Anointing of the Infirmed at the 4th Sundays of the Month at the Sunday Masses.

Keeping you in prayer.
