Week of August 30th—Twenty-second Sunday of Ordinary Time
Scriptural Readings Jeremiah 20: 1-9 “You duped me.” The Word of the Lord brought me derision, but I could not hold it in. Psalm 63 My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God. Romans 12: 1-2 Offer your bodies as a living sacrifice. Do not conform to this age but be transformed. Matthew 16: 21-27 Jesus indicated that he must suffer. Peter judges by human standards. Following Jesus entails taking up the cross and losing ourselves for his sake.
Catechism References 2584 Prophetic prayer is sometimes complaint. 1691-1696 Christians are rescued from darkness and called to walk the moral road to life, not death. 2030-2031 Moral life is spiritual worship. 554-555 To enter his glory, Jesus must go by way of the cross. 607, 609 In his suffering Jesus freely embraces the Father's plan of redeeming love. 618 We are called to become partners in Christ's Paschal mystery, carrying the cross. 363 Soul: our innermost self. 678-679 Christ in glory as the Judge.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

6 Sins against the Holy Spirit

published by the Aleteia website on 06/04/18

These missteps are really 6 weeds from the same root: a rejection of God's goodness. The Gospel says, in Matthew 12:32, “And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come.”

This frightening exhortation refers to the sin of rejecting God's grace; it is a rejection of God's offer of salvation—complete rejection of the actions, incessant invitations, and warnings of the Holy Spirit.

The will of a person who could commit this sin is so hardened that he doesn't want God's mercy, and he rejects His goodness.

Sin against the Holy Spirit is thus “unforgivable” precisely because it is the sinner himself who keeps God from forgiving him. As God respects the freedom with which He created us, He also respects a sinner's decision to firmly refuse to be forgiven.
