Key Reasons for Priests to Take Days Off

Biblical Precedent: Jesus took his apostles away for rest after hard work (Mark 6:31-32).

Burnout Prevention: Ministry is emotionally, spiritually, and mentally taxing; regular breaks prevent exhaustion and allow for rejuvenation.

Spiritual & Personal Renewal: Time away from parish duties allows for focused prayer, reflection, and pursuing personal interests, which nourishes their own faith and vocation.

Sustaining Long-Term Ministry: A well-rested priest serves better. Days off help build the stamina needed for years of demanding pastoral work.

Human Needs: Priests are human and need time for family, hobbies (hiking, reading, golf), and basic self-care, just like anyone else.
