FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK Admirer or Imitator, which one are you?

Greetings everyone:

One of the biggest challenges that one must face is answering the question: "Are you an admirer or imitator of the people who influence you most?"

This question is crucial, especially when you are reflecting on your relationship with Jesus.

An Admirer of Jesus is often portrayed as a person who applauds and approves of Jesus but plays it safe, renounces nothing, and is seeking a savior for comfort.

An Imitator of Jesus is often portrayed as a person who obeys and surrenders to Jesus by denying oneself by carrying the cross, because Jesus is the Master of that person's life.

Jesus wants us to be Imitators (Followers) and not Admirers.

This weekend, we give honor to the women in our lives who are mothers. They are truly Imitators of Jesus in every way by their countless sacrifices for our benefit day in and day out.

So, the question is, how are you going to give honor to your mother on Mother's Day? Are you just going to admire her, or are you going to imitate her by being a selfless, loving person to your family.

I believe that mothers deserve both! Many, many thanks, and learn to be as generous in loving as they are.

With endless gratitude and many more prayers, everyone!

Fr. Andy Sensenig OMI
