FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

From the Dark Valley to a Heavenly Banquet

In today's First Reading, the prophet Isaiah shares a beautiful, comforting promise: "The Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces." [Isaiah 25:8]

To wipe away a tear, you will have to get close. Our God is not distant. He walks right beside us when we are going through life's darkest valleys. But God also relies on us—His Church—to be His hands and feet. We are called to actively comfort those who are hurting and isolated.

No one in our parish should have to navigate the heavy burden of grief alone.

To help fulfill Isaiah's promise right here in our community, I am interested if anyone would like to join me in forming a Parish-Mission Bereavement Support Group. This is a safe, Christ-centered, and confidential space to share your sorrow, find strength in community, and walk toward the light of healing.

Who it is for: Anyone who has lost a loved one, whether recently or years ago.

What to expect: Prayer, fellowship, shared stories, and compassionate listening. If you are grieving, please let us walk with you. If you feel called to help host or facilitate this group, your parish family needs your heart.

Please let me know if you are interested.

Thank you for your time. And remember, Prayers Work!

Fr. Andy Sensenig OMI
