FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Greetings Everyone!

This Sunday is World Mission Sunday; the Liturgy calls us to reflect on our identity as a prophetic people.

In the Gospel for the 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year A), Jesus famously instructs us to "repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God" (Matthew 22:21). While we navigate our earthly obligations, this day reminds us that our primary allegiance is always to the Divine.

We bear the indelible image of God stamped upon our very souls. Because we belong entirely to Him, we are called to be active, living witnesses of His love to the ends of the earth.

Missionary work is not reserved only for those who travel across oceans. It truly begins in our homes, our workplaces, and our local neighborhoods. By prioritizing prayer, practicing radical charity, and sharing our faith, we answer Christ's great call.

Today, we also join the universal Church in global solidarity through our prayers and financial sacrifices. Our generosity directly supports all youth within our Diocese and those struggling mission lands worldwide.

Let us renew our baptismal commitment to spread the Gospel in both word and deed. May we give to God what is God's: our hearts, our lives, and our hands to build His Kingdom.

Thank you always for your tremendous prayers and deeds to help in bringing the Gospel to South Texas!

All of you are my heroes!

Fr. Andy Sensenig OMI
