God's Generous Love & Our First Teacher

In the Gospel for the 25th Sunday of Ordinary Time (Year A), Jesus shares the Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard. This challenging story reminds us that God's justice is governed by ultimate generosity, not human calculations. He calls each of us at different stages of life, offering the exact same reward: His unconditional, saving love.

This Sunday also marks Catechetical Sunday, a special time to honor and commission our parish catechists and Catholic school teachers. This year's focus highlights Our Lady of Guadalupe as the Model of a Teacher.

When Mary appeared to St. Juan Diego, she did not lecture; she taught with gentleness, humility, and profound love. Her simple reassurance—"Am I not here, I who am your mother?"—shows our educators how to lead others to Christ. A true teacher does not just pass on facts, but models the tender, patient heart of a mother.

Like the late-hour workers in the vineyard, we are all invited to enter the classroom of faith. Let us pray for our catechists as they echo Mary's witness and bring souls closer to her Son.

Thanks be to God for our ever generous Catechists! The fruits of their labor lasts forever!
