"There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it is accomplished! Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. From now on a household of five will be divided, three against two and two against three." - Lk 12:50-52

New World vs. Old World

BY ALICE CAMILLE

Jesus once used a metaphor we don't hear today that's good to keep in mind when we hear this passage proclaimed. It's the one about how new wine just doesn't fit in old wine skins. When the new wine expands, the old stretched-out skins will burst, and there goes the wine. In order to contain new wine, you have to use fresh skins. Don't kid yourself that old ones will do fine, because it's a waste of time and effort and, for heaven's sake, wine!

The kingdom of God, the central teaching of Jesus' ministry, is a new world coming. It's a new way of being, a new way of living, seeing, acting, deciding, and valuing. It is, in other words, new wine, and because new ideas are rarely compatible with old ones, the old ones have to give way. A lot of us, though, especially those of us who've been around a while, have become pretty comfortable in the old way of being. I myself heartily dislike new technology, fashions, and cultural innovation every time something is introduced. I find myself hating revolutions at first contact: everything from dishwashers to cell phones to Twitter to hot pink hair! It's wrong! It's not the way life has been and is supposed to be! But eventually these brand-new things start to grow their own familiarity, and I let them into my life. I have the dishwasher, the cell phone. Maybe I'll even come to appreciate hot pink hair.

When Jesus talks about bringing division, that is what he's talking about. It's not simply family members set against each other when Kingdom comes. It's generations that are at odds. Son against father, mother against daughter, daughter-in-law against mother-in-law: Old and new are in fierce conflict at the Kingdom's arrival. It's an intimate battle, fought in-house, setting loved ones in opposition. The new world can't slide easily into a gap left in the old one; the new world comes to tear the old world and the old way apart.

And that frightens us, as new things often do. It makes us mad. New is hard. It's often hard to understand the reasons why new is even necessary. What's wrong with washing dishes by hand or dialing up the number on a land-line telephone? What's wrong with clinging to our grade-school understanding of religion? In every heart the battle for the Kingdom will be waged. Either we surrender to the new, or we'll be left behind as the new wine finds a more pliant generation to receive it.

CATHOLIC Q&A

QUESTION

Why do we have a feast for the Queenship of Mary?

ANSWER

For many of us, the language of kings and queens may seem like they belong to history or a medieval movie. Royalty have absolute authority over a kingdom and their subjects, a concept that is foreign to many of us today. While Jesus doesn't rule a political kingdom, we honor and recognize him as the King of Kings, Lord of Heaven and Earth. To God alone belongs absolute authority over all of existence.

We may think of queens as the spouse of the king, but there is another key relationship: the king's mother. In Biblical history, we see instances where the mother of the king is given due as a queen herself, complete with a throne! Mary's guiding influence over her Son is seen most notably in the Wedding Feast at Cana. Mary is not Queen on her own merit. She is "full of grace" and "blessed" in "all ages" because of the reign of her Son.

SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE

With increasing prices and cutbacks from governmental sources for the funding of food pantries, a crisis is growing. Our neighbor, the Stella Apartments, and the food bank at Holy Family Parish in Linda Vista are having difficulty keeping food on their shelves. Your generosity in bringing a couple cans of soup, chili or other non-perishable foods to church on the weekend of the first Sunday of the month (Sept 6-7) helps greatly. Coin donations go to Stella Apartments Housing for Homeless. Please support the SAC's effort to reach out and help.

DEVOTIONS: GREGORIAN CHANT

Gregorian chant is an ancient form of sacred music used in liturgical worship and prayer. Defined by a monophonic (meaning a single melody without harmony or chords), unaccompanied song, this type of chant focuses the singer's mind on the content of the prayer being sung, which makes it uniquely suited for use in the Mass. Dating to the first millennium, it derives its name from Pope St. Gregory the Great, though scholarship is unclear on when exactly this type of chant originated. Prior to the Second Vatican Council, it was standard to use Gregorian chant in the Roman Rite Mass. Sacrosanctum Concilium, the Constitution on Divine Worship promulgated by Pope Paul VI in 1963, asserts that Gregorian chant is "specially suited to the Roman liturgy... (and) should be given pride of place in liturgical services."
