Darkness Gives Way to Light

BY ALICE CAMILLE

If you have ever seen the Sea of Galilee at sunrise, you would never have wanted to leave it. I woke up in Tiberias every morning for a whole week one summer, and the golden light on the water was so lovely it rendered me speechless. The rising sun actually turned the normally bright blue sea into a shimmering pool of liquid gold. It was like waking to the dawn of creation each time. Belief in a benevolent and beautiful God was beyond question in that favored place.

Each time I rose to see that magnificence, I wondered: How did they do it? How did Peter and Andrew, James and John walk away not only from their families, their boats, their livelihood, and their secure futures but also leave the side of that gentle, majestic, and maternal sea?

The whole region of the Galilee is unquestionably the most blessed part of Israel in terms of natural resources. No wonder the Gentiles, from the time of the Assyrian invasion in Isaiah's lifetime until Roman rule (when Herod Antipas built Tiberias to honor the emperor), chose to hunker down and trade by the sea rather than venture south into the dusty desert where Jerusalem stood on its lonely hill of Zion. The Jews of David's city might disparage Galileans for being culturally goyim, non-Jewish, just as the folks of nearby Nazareth were considered ne'er-do-wells. But citizens of Galilee knew the truth: Their territory flowed with the biblically promised milk and honey, while Jerusalem flowed mostly with the blood of Israel's prophets.

When Jesus left Nazareth he might have headed due south and intercepted his destiny in the heart of Jewish territory expediently. Instead he took the short northern route to the seaside, into the rich mix of commercially crucial Galilee. The renewed Jewish presence there was only 100 years old and would last another century. Even today Christians and Muslims outnumber Jews in many northern cities—the point being that Capernaum was not the obvious choice, Galilee not the most desirable breeding ground for a Jewish prophet intent on religious reform. If Jerusalem was and is the boiling point of all things God-related, then Galilee was a rather tepid place to begin.

But not for Isaiah. The seer from nine centuries earlier envisioned the redemption of this region "degraded" by the Gentile presence. While Messiah-watchers might focus on pivotal Jerusalem or even Davidically significant Bethlehem, only careful students of prophecy would think twice about some northern fishing and farming towns. Yet in Galilee Jesus reaps the images of his parables, works the bulk of his miracles, and harvests his 12 closest followers. Maybe only folks who've walked in darkness can appreciate the light when it dawns.

CATHOLIC Q&A

QUESTION

If one's gift or talent is making money, and one uses that money for honorable purposes, is it considered a spiritual gift? What does our faith teach us about wealth and stewardship?

ANSWER

Jesus said it best: to whom much is given, much is expected. All gifts come from God, and our abilities are given to us to be used for the benefit of ourselves and of others and at the service of the Gospel. In an article entitled "The Many Faces of Stewardship," Catherine Doherty wrote about stewardship in the "nitty-gritty everydayness of my life," and about the currency or "money" of spiritual stewardship: love, understanding, and unselfishness.

For a gift to have a spiritual benefit, our intention and involvement would be part of the consideration. If I give money to a charity, but do so in order to gain a tax advantage, it could hardly be a virtuous thing on my part. But if I give because I want to help and, in fact, am even willing to get involved, I have committed myself in a deeper, more meaningful way. Regardless of our money-making talents, in the end, true stewardship comes down to how well we practice the virtues of faith, hope, and love within our life and with those in our community and church. Ultimately, the most important element in stewardship is not intangible—it's you!

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

The sacrament of Anointing of the Sick will be administered during Mass on Sat, Feb 14 in the St. Francis Chapel at 9:00 am.

Who may receive the sacrament of Anointing of the Sick?

- Baptized persons over the age of seven and whose health is seriously impaired by sickness or old age may receive the sacrament of healing.

- Those who are elderly may be anointed if they have become notably weakened even though no serious illness is present.

- Those who have recently been anointed and whose illness has progressed may receive the sacrament again.

Caregivers and those who are able-bodied may consider bringing someone who cannot come to the Mass on their own. A light reception will follow in the California Room. All are welcome. It is not necessary to RSVP.

WHO IS SANTO NIÑO?

Santo Niño (Spanish for "Holy Child") refers to the image of the baby Jesus, especially popular in the Philippines and Hispanic cultures, symbolizing innocence, humility, and Christ's kingship, often depicted in regal attire with symbols like a crown, scepter, and orb, with the most famous statue being the Santo Niño de Cebú, a historical artifact representing the start of Christianity in the Philippines. Other depictions include:

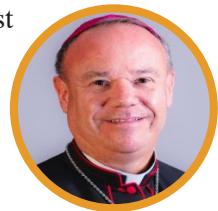

- Santo Niño de Tondo, second-oldest Filipino representation of the Child Jesus
- Santo Niño de Atocha, a Hispanic representation of the Child Jesus
- Santissimo Gesu de Malines, a Dutch representation of the Child Jesus that greatly resembles the image from Cebú
- Niñopa, a depiction of the Baby Jesus that is considered to be the most popular of all the Niño Dios icons in Mexico.
- Divino Niño, a Colombian representation of the Infant Jesus
- Santo Bambino of Aracoeli, an Italian representation of the Infant Jesus
- Santo Niño de la Salud, a Child Jesus depiction from Morelia (Michoacán State), Mexico
- Santo Niño Jesus de la Praga, a representation of the Child Jesus in the Czech Republic
- Bambino Gesu of Arenzano, a Child Jesus depiction from Genoa, Italy

AROUND THE DIOCESE

- All married couples are invited to attend a Diocesan Marriage Anniversary Mass on Sat, Feb 14 at 11:00 am at Church of the Resurrection Parish (1445 Conway Dr, Escondido). The Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Michael Pham and will celebrate the gift that marriage is to our spouses, families, and faith communities. Come renew your vows: whether you've been married for 6 months, 1 year, 5 years, or 55 years! What better way to celebrate St. Valentine's Day!? Couples married outside the Church will be able to learn how to discern/prepare for marriage in the Church. For more info, contact John Prust at jprust@sdcatholic.org.
