At Your Service

BY ALICE CAMILLE

Which would you choose: a debate with the tempter of souls or the sublime company of angels? Most nice people do not hesitate to voice their preference for the latter. That reflex, though, comes too easily, the “right answer” instead of the true one. The reality is, humanity has fundamentally and regrettably chosen the infernal side of the debate—and we choose it again, oh, at least once an hour.

The first conversation in the Bible is with God. God blesses the first couple in chapter 1 and gives the first commandment—thou shall not eat of that tree!—to the man in chapter 2. Yet neither man nor woman seek the companionship or council of God again in the story. They actively hide from their Maker in fact. It is God who seeks them out, significantly after their free betrayal of the sole commandment.

We imagine God might have interrupted the woman’s tête-à-tête with the serpent or insinuated the divine presence between the woman and man before the great betrayal was complete with the transfer of the forbidden fruit. Respecting human freedom, God remains silent through both transactions. God, who speaks first in the story, awaits a response from us. Original sin is the unhappy result.

We still have choices to make daily: to embrace the guardians of heaven or to dicker with demons. When we choose violence, prejudice, judgment, falsehood, idolatry, or infidelity, we’re breaking commandments that deny us access to the blessings God freely bestows on us and wants us to have. Each time we cause harm to our neighbors or ourselves, we’re disregarding that primary commandment of Jesus to demonstrate our love for God in loving people. Every hour of history the solution is the same: Talk to God. Listen to the divine word. But each hour far too many of us incline an ear to that “Pssst! Hey buddy!” coming from the tempter’s direction.

In the synoptic gospel tradition, Jesus reenacts the Genesis moment of crisis—though not in a lush garden surrounded by creature comforts. No, Jesus stands in a wilderness, hungry and weary from fasting. And unlike the first couple who had each other for support, Jesus is alone. The evangelists show us Jesus effectively in the same position we are today: suffering the result of a fallen world that is no paradise, where each of us endures the profound isolation and hunger that is the literal fruit of sin. The debate with the tempter begins—but something is different this time. Instead of being swayed by his sweet lies, Jesus clings to the word of God. The devil finds such company intolerable. When he departs, the landscape is flooded with angels, and desert becomes a paradise. Good news as we enter the Lenten desert ourselves!

CATHOLIC Q&A ### QUESTION

What does Jesus mean when he talks about taking up our cross?

ANSWER

Our journey of faith begins in baptism. When we are faithful to it, we find God's plan for us, his way of allowing us to participate in his saving work, which in turn becomes for us our own salvation. Stated simply, we share in the mission of Jesus each day. We live our life with all of its ups, downs, joys, and sorrows in union with the mission of Jesus. Our work then is holy. It is joined to the cross, God's will for Jesus — the way in which he destroys sin and death and makes eternal life possible. His sacrifice accomplishes what we ourselves cannot do.

To take up the cross, then, means that we share in the mission of Jesus and so embrace the sufferings of the cross. It is our daily life made holy, given a redemptive mission. It is our purpose and goal to unite our life to that of Christ. St. Paul says it best, "If we have grown into union with him through a death like his, we shall also be united with him in the resurrection" (Rom 6:5).

AROUND THE DIOCESE

• A Beginning Experience Weekend for those divorced, widowed or separated will be held

The weekend focuses on healing and moving beyond grief in a supportive and caring environment with others that are going through and have gone through the same experiences. Couples of all ages and stages are welcome. Sessions and topics will reflect the ongoing formation of newly married couples after the wedding. For more info, call (858) 490-8256.

• Whispering Winds Women's Auxiliary Free Lent Morning of Reflection will take place on Sat, Mar 7, at St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church in Point Loma. ## EXPLORER DAY LEARNING ABOUT THE PRIESTHOOD

An informational session for men interested in exploring a possible vocation to the priesthood will be hosted by the Director of Priestly Vocations, Fr. Marc Gandolfo, at St. Francis Center for Priestly Formation on the campus of the University of San Diego, on Sat, Mar 28, 8:30 am – 4:15 pm. If living a life of service for Christ and the people of God is attractive to you, take advantage of this invitation. To register, contact Fr. Peter or Fr. Dan in the parish office or via the parish website. Or call the St. Francis Center at (858) 490-8389.

MEN'S PERSPECTIVE GROUP

Join us in the Parish Office Conference Room from 4:00 to 5:00 pm. Next meeting: Sun, Mar 1. For more info, txt: Jerry Kwasek (619) 742-9591.

BLOOD DRIVE RESULTS

Last week's blood drive, sponsored by the Social Action Committee, was another success. Thanks to the generosity of donors, 32 units of blood, which has the potential to save up to 96 lives was collected. A single blood donation can save up to three lives because whole blood is often separated into three primary components: red blood cells, platelets, and plasma. This allows one donation to provide essential treatments for multiple patients, such as those recovering from trauma, individuals undergoing cancer treatments, or mothers during childbirth. The next blood drive will be held Sun, Sept 13.

CLOTHING DONATION

The Mission San Diego serves as a host site for a Fr. Joe's Villages donation bin, located in the courtyard, accepting new and gently-used clothing and shoes.

DID YOU KNOW?

Lent is a time of grace to grow in our spiritual life through prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Jesus rejected temptation with the commandment to worship and serve only God.

Did you know that our diocese supports the spiritual needs of 24,000 incarcerated men and women in our region? Your gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal makes this possible.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

Our Diocesan-assigned goal is: $94,000

To donate, go to the ACA link on missionsandiego.org

Thank you for supporting our diocese and parish!

SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE

With increasing prices and cutbacks from governmental sources for the funding of food pantries, a crisis is growing. Our neighbor, the Stella Apartments and the food bank at Holy Family Parish in Linda Vista are having difficulty keeping food on their shelves. Your generosity in bringing a couple cans of soup, chili or other non-perishable foods to church on the weekend of the first Sunday of the month helps greatly. In March, coin donations will go to Noah Homes – a home in Spring Valley for adults with disabilities.

HOMEBOUND MINISTRY

If you are unable to attend Mass and would like to receive the Holy Eucharist, a Homebound Minister can bring the Eucharist to you. Email Carmen Falcon at crmnflcn2920@gmail.com.

CHILD / YOUTH PROTECTION

Complaints about sexual abuse by a member of the clergy, parish employee, or volunteer can be made by calling (858) 490-8353 or by sending an email to misconduct@sdcatholic.org. Go to safeinourdiocese.org to read about efforts in the Diocese of San Diego to protect children, assist victims, and promote healing.

DIOCESE OF SAN DIEGO

As previously announced by the Diocese in 2022, at the conclusion of a three-year visitation, the Apostolic See (specifically the then-Congregation for Institutes of Consecrated Life and Societies of Apostolic Life) by means of a Decree dated 13 May 2022 and approved in forma specifica by Pope Francis, suppressed the religious institute formerly known as the Trinitarians of Mary. With this suppression, the former members of the Trinitarians were automatically dispensed from their vows and are no longer permitted to present themselves as religious. There is no right of appeal, and the Trinitarians have ceased to exist as a religious institute recognized by the Catholic Church.
