Catch Some Air

BY ALICE CAMILLE

When athletes in racing, basketball, or other sports leave the ground even for a few seconds, they are said to “catch air.” Especially when it comes to basketball, most of those players have a higher perspective than the rest of us who are only walking around! The euphoria of getting off your feet and into the air, however, lends an additional sensation not unlike our childhood dreams of flying. We feel somehow less materially bound, more than a mortal, if only for an instant.

Maybe folks who feel compelled to climb every mountain or walk a tight-rope or do daredevil stunts in a skateboard park are answering that same wild urge to transcend mortal boundaries and catch some of that rarified air. Maybe it was a similar urge that drove Saint Peter to get out of a boat and walk toward Jesus on the water. Being human weights us down with cares and limitations, a sometimes-leaden past or a sense of our own futility. Don't we all feel a desire to be able to float up and away from everything that keeps us pinned to the ground and all of the “have-tos” of our existence?

Is there a way we are invited to ascend with Jesus on this feast? He asks his disciples to do just that in the 40 days Luke tells us he spoke with them after the Resurrection. After Jesus presents himself so improbably alive and glorified, he instructs them once more about the kingdom of God. Admittedly, he had a lot to say about God's reign before he was crucified, but it seems as if they were asleep at the time. Now they're wide awake, blasted open by the trauma and the magnificence of the Triduum events (are we?), better prepared to hear what he's been saying all along.

Yet still, what do they ask him when they have this wonderful opportunity? “Will you restore the kingdom of Israel now?” They have yet to ascend, these friends of Jesus. They're still fretting about temporal kingdoms and earthly authority. It's as if Jesus said to them, “My friends, come up higher!” and they persisted in responding, “But lower is so much more familiar and comfortable!”

We sympathize with these friends of Jesus because we, too, find ascension a challenging way to go. So much locks us down to Earth: the pursuit of a living, the need to pay bills, the obligation to care for children and elders, the politics demanded by our social contract, the fragility of bodies not built to last. When we are asked to lift our gaze and maybe even catch some air by adopting a Kingdom perspective, it can seem impractical and even implausible. If we remain Earthbound, though, most of what Jesus said won't make much sense.

THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Where did he go? Many times when we think of those who have died, we imagine escape from this world to a purely spiritual place. Jesus' Ascension can leave us in a place of confusion. What happens to Jesus? And why does this matter to us?

The Ascension has been confirmed in the Creed for two millennia. In Jesus' Ascension, we're invited to consider our own ultimate end. Regardless of death's reality now, we believe in the resurrection of the body and the reunification of body and soul. One day, earth and heaven will meet perfectly and without end. We anticipate this "new heaven and a new earth" at every Mass and throughout the beauty, truth, and love of the Church and her members. Today, celebrate a foreshadowing of the fullness we all await!

AROUND THE DIOCESE

- Bishop Michael Pham invites all families to join him in celebrating our Catholic faith as we are “One Body in Christ” on Sat, May 23, at Cathedral Catholic High School, 5555 Del Mar Heights Rd, San Diego. This annual event, which celebrates the mosaic of cultures and languages that bring our faith to life in our diocese, starts with Mass at 11:00 am followed by a festival where Catholic communities will share their history and culture with free food samplings and musical entertainment.

- San Diego Catholic Worker will "Celebrate 50 Years of Service" with lunch and entertainment on Sat, May 30 from 12:00 pm - 3:00 pm in the St. Mary Magdalene Church Hall, 1945 Illion Street, San Diego. Cost is $30. Advance payments can be made at sandiegocatholicworker.org.

- Rachel's Hope is putting on a Healing Retreat after Abortion from May 29-31 at St. Mary's, 102 East 13th Ave. Escondido. This event is recognized by the Diocese of San Diego and confidentiality is maintained. Group size is limited. Cost $130; partial scholarships available. For info, call or text Andrea Finch, (619) 244-5021 or RachelsHope.org.

- John Paul the Great Catholic University invites you to attend the blessing of their new Creative Arts Complex in Escondido by Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone on Sat, Jun 13 at 1:30 pm. This state-of-the-art facility will support students in film, acting, design, and more, forming artists to impact culture for Christ. To RSVP for free, please visit jpcatholic.edu/go/grandopening

- It is time to get your marriage in shape. Worldwide Marriage Encounter is better than any college course. In just one short weekend (Jun 26-28), you can learn a technique for communication that will keep your marriage on the right track to be healthy. For more info, go to wwme.org. Early registration is recommended.

MEN'S PERSPECTIVE GROUP
