I Pledge Allegiance

BY ALICE CAMILLE

Loyalty is a quality we value highly. We want our friends to be loyal. We expect our families to be. We hope for some modicum of reliability from bosses or employees. In fact, every meaningful relationship involves loyalty to be viable. We pledge allegiance to the flag, acknowledging our citizenship. We support our parish financially as a sign that we're members who value what happens here. We "like" certain brands, books, groups on our Facebook page as our personal testimony of their worth. We cheer for our team, follow our favorite band, wear the t-shirt of the cause we care about.

Later this week we celebrate Independence Day, a festival of flag-waving and fireworks through which we declare our pride in the nation that provides us so many liberties. We who "belong" as U.S. citizens are deeply grateful that we do. We know that many around the world would be just as eager to belong to this story because of all the freedoms and opportunities it provides. How our nation grows that belonging sensibly, safely, and justly remains a problem to be solved and worth pondering on this Independence Day.

Pledging allegiance and choosing loyalties is also the theme across the passages for this Sunday. A woman of influence and means informs her husband that she'd like to make an investment in a certain Hebrew prophet. As a citizen of Shunem, this is an irregular alliance. The husband's consent is not recorded, but seems beside the point. The woman has made up her mind to remodel the house to make room for a seer she hopes to have as a frequent guest.

In another century, Saint Paul assures us that our Baptism unites us not only with Christ-life but also with Christ-death. Here's an allegiance we might not knowingly be pledging. Loyalty to Christ provides astounding benefits, including resurrection from the dead and newness of life.

But we get there by way of surrender, un-spelled-out suffering, and death to self-will. You have been warned.

Do we need more persuading? Jesus tells his disciples plainly: No love can be higher than your love for me. Not even family love—a teaching that upsets most of us terribly, since we really do love our families and hold this bond as quite sacred. Even dearer: We're told we can't hold our own lives as more precious than the loyalty we owe to Jesus.

How can such loyalty be expected of us? Truly, we'd much rather build an addition on the house for a prophet than to embrace this unstinting surrender to Jesus! Once surrendered, however, we find all other allegiances easily rearranged. Jesus is Lord. For the Christian, every other flag flies lower.

MASS INTENTIONS

The tradition of offering a Mass Intention is a deeply meaningful and ancient Catholic practice. Since the Holy Mass is the greatest and most powerful prayer of the Church, having a Mass offered for a specific intention is a powerful way to intercede for the living, pray for the dead, and give thanks to God.

To request a Mass intention at Mission San Diego, stop by our Visitor Center & Gift Shop and complete a Mass Intention Request Envelope. Requests for a specific date and time should be made at least one month in advance. If no date is requested, the Mass will be scheduled as soon as possible.

In the Diocese of San Diego, the recommended offering for a Mass intention is $10.00. Offerings received from Mass intentions are given to the priest who celebrated the Mass as part of his compensation. At the Mission San Diego, priest's Mass intentions are announced by way of the Sunday bulletin.

CONSECRATION OF USA

The USCCB consecrated our nation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus on June 11, in anticipation of the 250th anniversary of our nation. The 250 hours are collective hours, every person that attends; constitutes one hour. Parishes throughout the diocese will host Holy Hours based on the following themes specified by the USCCB:

Holy Hour for Life; Holy Hour for Peace; Holy Hour for Life, Marriage, and Religious Liberty; Holy Hour for Vocations; Holy Hour Against Racism; and Sacred Heart Holy Hour.

SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE

With increasing prices and cutbacks from governmental sources for the funding of food pantries, a crisis is growing. Our neighbor, the Stella Apartments and the food bank at Holy Family Parish in Linda Vista are having difficulty keeping food on their shelves. Your generosity in bringing a couple cans of soup, chili or other non-perishable foods to church on the weekend of the first Sunday of the month helps greatly. In July, coin donations will go to Rachel Women's Center / Catholic Charities.
