Zion United Church
Sunday worship — 11:00 am

A small group of friends from St. Andrew's United Church celebrated Doris Shipmaker's 98th birthday on January 24th, with Doris being our Princess for the day.

The celebration was held outdoors on Doris' steps, complete with music, a basket of cards, goodies and a cake. Unfortunately a number of our members were away or busy, but we all wish her well and send our love.

Doris has been a gift to our church community, singing with the choir, chair of worship committee and many other tasks over the many years.

BOOK NOOK Tuesdays at Zion

The Book Nook will be open from 10 a.m. – noon.

The book nook will be open this Tuesday but it will be closed for a few weeks. Books and puzzles are still available, anyone interested can contact Barb Evans or the church office for access. (250)546-9384

MACKENZIE CAMP AGM

On Saturday, February 4, 2023 at 4 pm the Annual General Meeting of the MacKenzie Camp Society takes place at St. Andrew's United Church, 1110 Belvedere Street, Enderby, BC V0E 1V0. Light dinner will follow. For information, please email maccamp@shaw.ca or phone 250-838-6293.

Hey Thrift Shoppers & (early) "Spring Cleaners"!

MacKenzie Camp is looking for Corelle dinnerware.

Please keep your eye out for Corelle plates and bowls!

You can leave them at the church anytime
with a "for Camp" label

Many, many thanks!

Cultural back-ground of the people of Zion

We have started bringing items which display something from our ancestry.

Keep bringing those items until Sunday February 12 when we will tour the displays and celebrate the diversity of our congregation's backgrounds.

On Feb 12, we will also have a table where you can set items which can't be hung on the wall or bulletin board. That way we can accommodate the teacups, and other items which demonstrate various backgrounds.

I am hoping that each person who has brought something will tell us all briefly what country it honours and their connection to it.

Askew's Cards

Update!

We will be worshiping in Enderby this coming Sunday at 9:30 so I will bring cards with me. See me after church.

You can continue to call me at 250-546-8195 to pre-order your cards if you wish.

And for those of you who make you church donations in offering envelopes—you can bring them to Enderby and our church will pick them up for deposit to Zion. Thanks, Eleanor
