We had a great turnout for our Zion Curling Party on January 14th.

Seven ventured onto the ice for lessons and a fun game, with six of us curlers coaching. Many more enjoyed the lounge, playing the tabletop game or watching the ones on the ice. We enjoyed a great social time when we were done on the ice. As they say, a good time was had by all!

Askew's Cards

Attention Askew's card users.

I recently found out that some clerks at Askew's are offering to re-fill your cards when they are used up.

PLEASE DO NOT DO THAT ! Zion will not earn 7% interest as we have in the past when you have the store fill them.

Just leave them with the clerk and I have been assured that these cards are not thrown in the garbage but they are sent away to be cleaned and re-filled and then recycled. Get your cards at church on Sunday or call Eleanor at 250-546-8195.

Council Meeting

As most of you know the evening of Thursday Jan 11th was a Council Meeting. Everyone was there: Hati Mvundura, Rod Gilmer, Maureen Macdonald, Louise Burton, Suzanne Skinner, Penny Kirk, Chris Trueman, Wilma Koersen, Leona Harrison & myself (Marj Bailey).

During the meeting we discussed the upcoming Annual Congregational Meeting to be held February 25th following worship. We talked about a nomination committee and we opted not to knock on doors or twist arms to try & convince people to take on a position on council whether as a committee chair or a member at large. We want to remind everyone they are welcome to sit in on Council meetings. And, also to explain what our committees do & invite anyone who might be interested in a committee to please step up & speak to any council member or the specific committee chair we would love to have some help.

Since I seem to be the Chair of Outreach I have the pleasure of introducing some of our Outreach activities.

1. Book Nook – inviting those who like to read or do puzzles to come in & see what they can find, all by donation. Currently Barb Evans is our Book Nook lady & takes great care of the books – it can get lonely, she has days no one stops by. Maybe you'd consider helping Barb so she at least has a backup person or drop in to say "hi" whether you want anything or not.
3. Coffee House – this is a networking opportunity for people who like to play & sing or just appreciate an afternoon of music. Diann Boyd & Leona Harrison have been leading the music while Catherine Macaskill & I make sure there's some refreshments available (be careful we have been known to recruit for kitchen duty)
- 4.
5. Breakaway – did you know that Outreach has a "specific sound"? It is the sound of children playing and singing and their parents/caregivers visiting with one another. Wilma Koersen, Pam Krazanowski, Sandra Borden, Diann Boyd and I all share the joy of Breakaway. We only took the one day of during the Christmas break and opted to be in session January 3rd – it was lively – we had some kids & moms suffering from cabin fever – the energy was amazing and it was delightful. The appreciation was genuine.
