Sunday worship — 9:30am

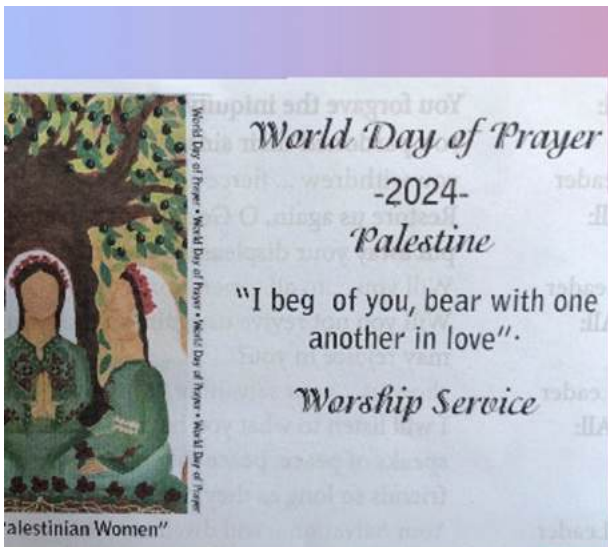

The World Day of Prayer 2024 service, hosted by St. Andrew's United Church, on March 8, 2024 focused on Palestine. A service rich in prayer, song, story, and Palestinian food. So good to have the participation of five different church congregations:)

A photograph of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at 1106 Belvedere St., circa 1920, taken by A.C. Taylor Co. and another showing the first and second Methodist churches at 713-715 Cliff St., circa 1909.

The Presbyterian Mission was established in Spallumcheen in 1886, to service Lansdowne and Enderby, with Alexander Leslie Fortune being instrumental in coordinating the effort. Rev. Jaffary was the first minister, followed by Rev. John Knox Wright. The Presbyterian Church was built in 1891 at 706 George St. by contractor Samuel Bowell for $1,240.

The Spallumcheen Mission was divided into Enderby and Vernon missions in 1892. The Enderby Mission consisted of Enderby, Armstrong, Knob Hill, Hullcar, Lansdowne and Round Prairie. In 1911 Armstrong separated from Enderby.

The Methodists and Presbyterians met in the Presbyterian church until 1893 when the Methodists built their own frame church and manse at 715 Cliff St. in 1893.

A new Presbyterian church, made of Enderby brick, was constructed on Belvedere Street in 1906 by Simington and Barnett of Armstrong at a cost of $3,300.

In 1909 the Methodists built a larger brick church next to the original church at 713 Cliff St. with a distinctive bell tower and octagonal classroom.

The two churches frequently held joint teas, socials, concerts and church services. When the two churches unified in 1925, the Presbyterian and Methodist churches combined to become St. Andrew's United Church, and they met in the Presbyterian Church on Belvedere.

The Methodist Church was torn down after unification in 1926. The pastoral charges for the United Church included Deep Creek, Hullcar, Grandview Bench, Mara and Kingfisher. By 1970 it consisted of congregations at Sicamous and Malakwa, and in 1977 it continued on its own.

A manse was built south of the church in 1951, and an education wing was added to the west side in 1963. In 1971 members of the United Church spearheaded an ecumenical movement to develop a seniors' low-cost rental housing on the property next to the church and called it Pioneer Place.

*****As a follow-up to the article, Geordie Roberts posted (6 Mar 2023) that, "The manse was moved to the field immediately east of the Roberts farm at 25 Waterside Rd, Enderby, and is still used as a residence today."
