BILLET NEEDED FOR OUR AMAZING STAFF MEMBER FROM QUEBEC!

Here is a little about Felix who is joining us for a summer at MacKenzie Camp.

We are looking for a billet for him. He arrives June 13 at camp and will need a place to hang his hat on the weekends. He is driving so will be pretty independent and will probably do some exploring on the weekends. If you have a piano in your home that would be a fantastic bonus as he (and his instructor) are a little worried about practice time for his fall repertoire. Last day of camp is August 12. If you know anyone who might be willing to billet Felix please let us know.

Contact Dalynn at 250-838-6293 or maccamp@shaw.ca. Thank you thank you thank you!

Congratulations to Jeslyn Simpson and Aidan Rice who were married Saturday May 7.

Last week we were unable to include a picture of the newly weds. Hence a repeat of the announcement.

It will now be held on June 8, 2022 at 1030.

Tiffany

Pastoral Care is an opportunity to deeply impact the lives of people in our community who need support, care and love.

Please contact one of ZUC's Pastoral Care committee members (Suzanne Skinner, Pam Krazanowski, Catherine MacAskill, Pauline Curtis, Mona Ball - 'Sunshine Card Gal', Wilma Koersen) if you know of someone who would benefit from, or needs, extra support in any way.

Rev. Heather Burton is also available for spiritual support:)

I have registered for the 2022 Cultural Competency Course at Trinity United Church that will happen in September and October of this year. It is expected that I share some of what I learn to the congregations of Zion and St. Andrews. What better way then via The Messenger. Here is my first info on the topic of UNDRIP in the hope that it will help to give more people some kind of insight in the struggles of Indigenous people in our country.

UNITED NATIONS DECLARATION ON THE RIGHTS OF INDIGENOUS PEOPLES

- The most comprehensive international instrument on the rights of indigenous peoples.
- Establishes a universal framework of minimum standards for the survival, dignity, and well-being of the world's indigenous peoples
- Groundwork toward the Declaration was laid as far back as 1923 and 1925 in the works of Haudenosaunee Chief Deskaheh and Maori T.W. Ratana who attempted to bring issues of Canada and New Zealand's failure to uphold treaties to the League of Nations, precursor to the U.N.
- Adopted by the United Nations General Assembly on September 13, 2007 by a majority of 144 states in favour, 11 abstentions and 4 votes against (Canada, USA, Australia and New Zealand)
- Canada officially removed its objector status to UNDRIP in May 2016.
- It is not a legally binding instrument under international law but does "reflect the commitment of the UN's member states to move in certain directions".
- In 2016, MP Romeo Saganash introduced private members Bill C-262, an Act to ensure that the laws of Canada are in harmony with UNDRIP
- Bill C-262 was passed by elected officials in Parliament but died on the Order Paper in the Senate when a handful of Senators blocked the final passage on June 21, 2019. June 21st is National Indigenous Peoples Day.
- November 26, 2019 – The B.C. government adopts UNDRIP into legislation when it passes Bill 41, the first province to do so.
- December 3, 2020 - Bill C-15, a second attempt to adopt UNDRIP federally, is introduced in Parliament
- June 16, 2020 - The Canadian Senate votes to pass Bill C-15: "The Government of Canada must take all measures necessary to ensure that the laws of Canada are consistent with UNDRIP and must prepare and implement action plans to achieve the objectives of the Declaration"
