July 27 (Jackson)—

July 21 (Harrogate)—

Archives.

July 15-16 (Nashville)—

in partnership with the East Tennessee History Center and sponsored by Humanities

June 21-24 (Cleveland)—

be greatly missed by all who knew him.

This image shows Robert (second from left) at a 2019 gathering celebrating the impact he helped found, Franklin's Charge, went on to reclaim nearly 200 acres of the Moines River at Bentonsport, Bonaparte, and Keosauqua.

number of significant extant sites, including the coordinator Savannah Grandey and graduate

2022, West and Kostine, joined by fieldwork

Sutherland, NE, where you can still see the Bloomfield to Lewis to Omaha and all the way

Brigham Young.

that, most of his congregation decided to move westward under the leadership of

1839-1846 and flourished even as it came under attack due to the Mormons' beliefs served as the headquarters of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints from leadership: Brigham Young. Joseph was replaced by Joseph in Granger, IN, and was the headquarters of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints from 1839-1846 and flourished even as it came under attack due to the Mormons’ beliefs.

Joseph Smith was murdered in nearby Carthage in 1844; after of the Mormon Trail of 1847. They later moved to Sutherland, NE, where you can still see the

Mormon Pioneer Trail follows the 1,300-mile

route established by Mormons fleeing Nauvoo

and, after enduring the ups and downs of the Trail of Tears

had become Nauvoo, Illinois.

In February 2022, the Center accepted

Partners

National Baptist Publishing Board

Richard Henry Boyd

in Granger, IN, and was the headquarters of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints from 1839-1846 and flourished even as it came under attack due to the Mormons’ beliefs.

Joseph Smith was murdered in nearby Carthage in 1844; after

of the Mormon Trail of 1847. They later moved to Sutherland, NE, where you can still see the

Mormon Pioneer Trail follows the 1,300-mile

route established by Mormons fleeing Nauvoo

and, after enduring the ups and downs of the Trail of Tears

had become Nauvoo, Illinois.

In February 2022, the Center accepted

Partners

National Baptist Publishing Board

Richard Henry Boyd

in Granger, IN, and was the headquarters of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints from 1839-1846 and flourished even as it came under attack due to the Mormons’ beliefs.

Joseph Smith was murdered in nearby Carthage in 1844; after

of the Mormon Trail of 1847. They later moved to Sutherland, NE, where you can still see the

Mormon Pioneer Trail follows the 1,300-mile

route established by Mormons fleeing Nauvoo

and, after enduring the ups and downs of the Trail of Tears

had become Nauvoo, Illinois.