

Academy N1 Teams (11 v 11)

General Overview: Academy N1 teams will play National 1 League. Each coach will share information with his/her team as to the division for each team. Teams will also participate in showcases in Fall and/or Spring. Teams may also choose to participate in events other than just those included in their team budget. If so, all costs will be divided between the players participating.

Yearly Cost: Full Year - $3,674

High School - $2,672

Covers:

Tournament/Showcase-2 travel full year (1 High School)
Tournaments -2 local
League Fees (1 per season)
Ref and Field expenses for Travel Leagues
3 practice per week out door (KC Current)
Coach Travel Expenses Associated with league and tournaments
2 Winter Sessions
1 practice per week indoor-winter
Coach Travel Expenses
Coaching Fees
Goalkeeper Training
Speed/agility and Technical Training

Post Season-Teams making it to post season play should expect additional fees to cover extended coaching, training fields, and coach travel expenses.

Commitment: Players are expected to attend all trainings as well as games and are asked to be committed to the team for a full year of soccer. Upon being offered a spot on an Alliance FC team, parents will complete online registration through PlayMetrics, which includes a $400 down payment and setting up an annual payment plan. For those interested, fundraising opportunities will be coordinated throughout the year to help offset costs. If families choose to pay in full, a 5% discount will be given.

Injured / Dropped Players: Must pay all fees for the first six weeks. After 6 weeks coaching fees can be adjusted. Season ending injuries may have additional prorations. Parents are responsible for communicating injuries to the Alliance FC's Admin Staff in a timely manner by using the Injury Notification Form at www.alliancefc.net.

Uniforms: You will order uniforms online directly from Capelli Sport. The uniform kit will be around $400 plus tax, shipping and handling. Orders will include 2 jerseys, 2 pairs of shorts, 2 pairs of socks, 1 training top, 1 training short, 1 training sock, full warm up, and a backpack. Orders need to be placed by June 15th to ensure an August 1st delivery time.

Elite 11 v 11 Teams

General Overview: Elite teams will play in the Heartland Soccer League. Each coach will share information with his/her team as to the division for each team. Teams may also choose to participate in events other than just those included in their team budget. If so, all costs will be divided between the players participating.

Yearly Cost: Full Year - $3190

High School - $2320

Covers:

Tournaments 3 local and 1 travel
Fall and Spring League Fees
3 practice per week out door (KC Current)
2 Sessions of Winter League
1 indoor practice per week indoor
Coaching Fees (including travel)
Club Fees
Technical Training
Goal Keeper Training

Commitment: Players are expected to attend all trainings as well as games and are asked to be committed to the team for a full year of soccer. Upon being offered a spot on an Alliance FC team, parents will complete online registration through PlayMetrics, which includes a $400 down payment and setting up an annual payment plan. For those interested, fundraising opportunities will be coordinated throughout the year to help offset costs. If families choose to pay in full, a 5% discount will be given.

Injured / Dropped Players: Must pay all fees for the first six weeks. After 6 weeks coaching fees can be adjusted. Season ending injuries may have additional prorations. Parents are responsible for communicating injuries to the Alliance FC's Admin Staff in a timely manner by using the Injury Notification Form at www.alliancefc.net.

Uniforms: You will order uniforms online directly from Capelli Sport. The uniform kit will be around $400 plus tax, shipping and handling. Orders will include 2 jerseys, 2 pairs of shorts, 2 pairs of socks, 1 training top, 1 training short, 1 training sock, full warm up, and a backpack. Orders need to be placed by June 15th to ensure an August 1st delivery time.

Premier 11 v 11 Teams

General Overview: Premier teams will play in the Heartland Soccer League. Each coach will share information with his/her team as to the division for each team. Teams may also choose to participate in events other than just those included in their team budget. If so, all costs will be divided between the players participating.

Yearly Cost: Full Year - $2970

High School - $2320

Covers:

Tournaments 4 local
Fall and Spring League Fees
3 practice per week out door (KC Current)
2 Sessions of Winter League
1 indoor practice per week indoor
Coaching Fees
Club Fees
Technical Training
Goal Keeper Training

Commitment: Players are expected to attend all trainings as well as games and are asked to be committed to the team for a full year of soccer. Upon being offered a spot on an Alliance FC team, parents will complete online registration through PlayMetrics, which includes a $400 down payment and setting up an annual payment plan. For those interested, fundraising opportunities will be coordinated throughout the year to help offset costs. If families choose to pay in full, a 5% discount will be given.

Injured / Dropped Players: Must pay all fees for the first six weeks. After 6 weeks coaching fees can be adjusted. Season ending injuries may have additional prorations. Parents are responsible for communicating injuries to the Alliance FC's Admin Staff in a timely manner by using the Injury Notification Form at www.alliancefc.net.

Uniforms: You will order uniforms online directly from Capelli Sport. The uniform kit will be around $400 plus tax, shipping and handling. Orders will include 2 jerseys, 2 pairs of shorts, 2 pairs of socks, 1 training top, 1 training short, 1 training sock, full warm up, and a backpack. Orders need to be placed by June 15th to ensure an August 1st delivery time.

Alliance FC Academy Teams (9v9)

General Overview: Academy teams will play in the Heartland Soccer League. Each coach will share information with his/her team as to the division for each team. Teams may also choose to participate in events other than just those included in their team budget. If so, all costs will be divided between the players participating.

Yearly Cost: $3069

Covers:

Tournaments 3 local and 1 travel
Fall and Spring League Fees
3 practice per week out door (KC Current)
2 Sessions of Winter League
1 indoor practice per week indoor
Coaching Fees (including travel)
Club Fees
Technical Training
Goal Keeper Training

Commitment: Players are expected to attend all trainings as well as games and are asked to be committed to the team for a full year of soccer. Upon being offered a spot on an Alliance FC team, parents will complete online registration through PlayMetrics, which includes a $400 down payment and setting up an annual payment plan. For those interested, fundraising opportunities will be coordinated throughout the year to help offset costs. If families choose to pay in full, a 5% discount will be given.

Injured / Dropped Players: Must pay all fees for the first six weeks. After 6 weeks coaching fees can be adjusted. Season ending injuries may have additional prorations. Parents are responsible for communicating injuries to the Alliance FC's Admin Staff in a timely manner by using the Injury Notification Form at www.alliancefc.net.

Uniforms: You will order uniforms online directly from Capelli Sport. The uniform kit will be around $400 plus tax, shipping and handling. Orders will include 2 jerseys, 2 pairs of shorts, 2 pairs of socks, 1 training top, 1 training short, 1 training sock, full warm up, and a backpack. Orders need to be placed by June 15th to ensure an August 1st delivery time.

Elite 9 v 9

General Overview: Elite teams will play in the Heartland Soccer League. Each coach will share information with his/her team as to the division for each team. Teams may also choose to participate in events other than just those included in their team budget. If so, all costs will be divided between the players participating.

Yearly cost: $2827

Covers:

Tournaments 2 local and 1 Travel
Fall and Spring League Fees
3 practice per week out door (KC Current)
2 Sessions of Winter League
1 indoor practice per week indoor
Coaching Fees (including travel)
Club Fees
Technical Training
Goal Keeper Training

Commitment: Players are expected to attend all trainings as well as games and are asked to be committed to the team for a full year of soccer. Upon being offered a spot on an Alliance FC team, parents will complete online registration through PlayMetrics, which includes a $400 down payment and setting up an annual payment plan. For those interested, fundraising opportunities will be coordinated throughout the year to help offset costs. If families choose to pay in full, a 5% discount will be given.

Injured / Dropped Players: Must pay all fees for the first six weeks. After 6 weeks coaching fees can be adjusted. Season ending injuries may have additional prorations. Parents are responsible for communicating injuries to the Alliance FC's Admin Staff in a timely manner by using the Injury Notification Form at www.alliancefc.net.

Uniforms: You will order uniforms online directly from Capelli Sport. The uniform kit will be around $400 plus tax, shipping and handling. Orders will include 2 jerseys, 2 pairs of shorts, 2 pairs of socks, 1 training top, 1 training short, 1 training sock, full warm up, and a backpack. Orders need to be placed by June 15th to ensure an August 1st delivery time.

Premier 9 v 9

General Overview: Premier teams will play in the Heartland Soccer League. Each coach will share information with his/her team as to the division for each team. Teams may also choose to participate in events other than just those included in their team budget. If so, all costs will be divided between the players participating.

Yearly cost: $2585

Covers:

Tournaments 2 local
Fall and Spring League Fees
3 practice per week out door (KC Current)
2 Sessions of Winter League
1 indoor practice per week indoor
Coaching Fees
Club Fees
Technical Training
Goal Keeper Training

Commitment: Players are expected to attend all trainings as well as games and are asked to be committed to the team for a full year of soccer. Upon being offered a spot on an Alliance FC team, parents will complete online registration through PlayMetrics, which includes a $400 down payment and setting up an annual payment plan. For those interested, fundraising opportunities will be coordinated throughout the year to help offset costs. If families choose to pay in full, a 5% discount will be given.

Injured / Dropped Players: Must pay all fees for the first six weeks. After 6 weeks coaching fees can be adjusted. Season ending injuries may have additional prorations. Parents are responsible for communicating injuries to the Alliance FC's Admin Staff in a timely manner by using the Injury Notification Form at www.alliancefc.net.

Uniforms: You will order uniforms online directly from Capelli Sport. The uniform kit will be around $400 plus tax, shipping and handling. Orders will include 2 jerseys, 2 pairs of shorts, 2 pairs of socks, 1 training top, 1 training short, 1 training sock, full warm up, and a backpack. Orders need to be placed by June 15th to ensure an August 1st delivery time.

Alliance FC Premier 7 v 7

General Overview: Premier teams will play in the Heartland Soccer League. Each coach will share information with his/her team as to the division for each team. Teams may also choose to participate in events other than just those included in their team budget. If so, all costs will be divided between the players participating.

Yearly Cost: $2288

Covers:

Tournaments 2 local
Fall and Spring League Fees
3 practice per week out door (KC Current)
2 Sessions of Winter League
1 indoor practice per week indoor
Coaching Fees
Club Fees
Technical Training
Goal Keeper Training

Commitment: Players are expected to attend all trainings as well as games and are asked to be committed to the team for a full year of soccer. Upon being offered a spot on an Alliance FC team, parents will complete online registration through PlayMetrics, which includes a $400 down payment and setting up an annual payment plan. For those interested, fundraising opportunities will be coordinated throughout the year to help offset costs. If families choose to pay in full, a 5% discount will be given.

Injured / Dropped Players: Must pay all fees for the first six weeks. After 6 weeks coaching fees can be adjusted. Season ending injuries may have additional prorations. Parents are responsible for communicating injuries to the Alliance FC's Admin Staff in a timely manner by using the Injury Notification Form at www.alliancefc.net.

Uniforms: You will order uniforms online directly from Capelli Sport. The uniform kit will be around $400 plus tax, shipping and handling. Orders will include 2 jerseys, 2 pairs of shorts, 2 pairs of socks, 1 training top, 1 training short, 1 training sock, full warm up, and a backpack. Orders need to be placed by June 15th to ensure an August 1st delivery time.