

Mary is president of Higginbotham's Private Client Services department and leads a dedicated team that serves approximately 50,000 clients. The industry veteran has been integral to Higginbotham becoming the largest independent insurance broker in Texas and among the top 20 in the United States and is credited with coordinating the Private Client team for a business management firm in California.

Beyond the accolades from her colleagues, Mary is often recognized by the industry for her "can do" spirit, unwavering commitment to her clients and personal achievements, being named one of the Great Women of Texas and Women of Influence by the Fort Worth Business Press (2019), receiving the Joann Heltibridle Award from the Private Risk Management Association (2016), and the Travelers Personal Insurance Agent of the Year title (2013).

She has served on the boards of many organizations, including the National Alliance for Insurance Education & Research, BBVA Compass, Hartford, CHUBB, Safeco, PURE National Agents, Fireman's Fund and National Lloyds. Plus, Mary is a CHUBB Insurance CAPI advisor with the Wharton Institute of Executive Education and a founding board member of the Private Risk Management Association.

Mary's philanthropic endeavors rival her professional accomplishments and include volunteer and financial support for Arlington Baptist College, Boys & Girls Club, Catholic Charities, Movement City Church, Mayfest, Tara Sawyer Foundation, Communities in Schools, Ronald McDonald House, Cook Children's Hospital, Girls, Inc., Habitat for Humanity, Scottish Rite Hospital, Crowley ISD Special Olympics, Aledo Athletic Association, Charles Schwab Executive Women's Day at the Colonial and Stage West Theatre.

Before joining Higginbotham in 1990, Mary was a claims representative at American General Insurance, where she adjusted property/casualty claims and served as an expert witness for insurance claim matters.

