The Congregational Care Committee is looking for volunteers to be on a Bereavement Team. When a member of our congregation passes away, the bereavement teams host a reception for friends and family to gather or provide a meal to the family. Volunteers are needed to provide food, help with setup or cleanup, or provide flowers for these gatherings. Please let Cyndi Coker know if you are willing to help. cyndicoker@lcsd56g.com or 843-992-6920.

United Ministries thanks and applauds the congregation of First Presbyterian Church for your generous donations in November and December 2025. Your contributions totaled $20,945. We thank each of you who donated food during the SNAP crisis and for the Alternative Christmas gifts. We are truly blessed. Thank you!

The Classics will be sponsoring a trip to the Newberry Opera House to see the Candlelight Celtic on Sunday, March 8 at 6:00 p.m. We need 10 people to go to qualify for a group rate which would be $45.00 per person. If you are interested, please reserve your spot with Jean Johnson by email and by paying your $45 before January 20, making the check out to First Presbyterian Church. You can give your check to Lisa in the church office. The tickets must be bought quickly so please respond and pay before Jan. 20th.

The Women's Evening Book Study group will meet next Monday, January 19th at 7:00 p.m. in the church parlor. We are currently reading and discussing Max Lucado's book, Anxious for Nothing. If you are not currently in a book or bible study group and you would like to join us, please do! This group is open to all women and friends of FPC, and participants are welcome to join us at any time!

A Little Bit of FPC History . . . Then & Now

Thank you to Emmie An McLean for sharing this photo that beautifully captures the history of FPC Clinton, featuring two live nativity angels: Joy Gault, the oldest original angel in FPC's first live nativity, which took place 81 years ago, alongside Corley Burton, our youngest live nativity angel in 2025.
