

Report on Global Ethics Day 2025

The College of Allied Health Sciences (CAHS) Students, SRMIST, SRM TRC celebrated “Global Ethics Day: Doctor Patient Relationship” awareness program as an outreach program in Cholamadevi Village, Thiruverumbur Taluk, Tiruchirappalli, on 10.11.25. The participants from the community predominantly included the senior resident community and Mrs. M.C. Malathy, Assistant Professor, CAHS welcomed the chief guests Mr. K. Mahendran, (Retd), Tamil Nadu Fire & Rescue division and Dr. N. Udaya Kumar, SFO station fire officer, Cholamadevi Village. Students from CAHS created awareness with the help of posters regarding hospital emergencies, ethical principles that doctors should follow and patient rights. They also staged a drama regarding doctor patient relationship, conducted various games and provided lunch for the participants. Dr. G. Rohini, Associate Professor, CAHS thanked the chief guests, organizers and the participants. The Cholamadevi village participants thoroughly enjoyed the events and winners of various games were provided with prizes. The event was much appreciated by the community and the students of CAHS take great pride in making the event a grand success.

