

Automatic Donor Program

In response to many requests, Asia Harvest is offering an Automatic Donor Program whereby you may contribute to our work through donations from your checking account. This program helps reduce our postage and processing costs.

CHECKING WITHDRAWAL

(For U.S. banks only)

To enroll in our automatic withdrawal from a checking account program, please complete the form below and attach a VOIDED BLANK check from the account from which you wish your donations to be made. The automatic withdrawal system takes approximately two weeks to set up after we receive the form from you. After enrollment is complete, your gifts to Asia Harvest will be automatically withdrawn from your account until you inform us to cancel or change your gift. For your records, your donor transaction details will be located
