Examples of days that are not Working Days include, but are not limited to, the following — a Saturday, a Sunday, Waitangi Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, ANZAC Day, the Sovereign's birthday, Te Rā Aro ki a Matariki/Matariki Observance Day, and Labour Day.

Purposes

- 4. The primary purposes of the Society are to—
 - a. Provide leadership to foster, promote and advance the playing of junior cricket within the Porirua region, while upholding the highest standards of sportsmanship and behaviour at all times;
 - b. Maximise opportunities for junior age group children within the Porirua region to participate in cricket and develop their cricket skills;
 - c. Maintain prudent stewardship of the Society's financial and other resources; and
 - d. Uphold and support the authorities managing provincial and national cricket in New Zealand.
- 5. The Society must not operate for the purpose of, or with the effect of—
 - a. distributing, any gain, profit, surplus, dividend, or other similar financial benefit to any of its Members (whether in money or in kind); or
 - b. having capital that is divided into shares or stock held by its Members; or
 - c. holding, property in which its members have a disposable interest (whether directly, or in the form of shares or stock in the capital of the society or otherwise).

6. But the Society will not operate for the financial gain of Members simply if the Society—

- a. engages in trade,
- b. pays a Member for matters that are incidental to the purposes of the Society, and the Member is a not-for-profit entity,
- c. distributes funds to a Member to further the purposes of the Society, and the Member—
 - i. is a not-for-profit entity, and
 - ii. is affiliated or closely related to the Society, and
 - iii. has the same, or substantially the same, purposes as those of the Society.
- d. reimburses a Member for reasonable expenses legitimately incurred on behalf of the Society or while pursuing the Society's purposes, e. provides benefits to members of the public or of a class of the public and those persons include Members or their families,
- f. provides benefits to Members or their families to alleviate hardship,
- g. provides educational scholarships or grants to Members or their families,
- h. pays a Member a salary or wages or other payments for services to the Society on arm's length terms (terms reasonable in the circumstances if the parties were connected or related only by the transaction in question, each acting independently, and each acting in its own best interests; or are terms less favourable to the Member than those terms and the payment for services, or other transaction, does not include any share of a gain, profit, or surplus, percentage of revenue, or other reward in connection with any gain, profit, surplus, or revenue of the Society),
- i. provides a Member with incidental benefits (for example, trophies, prizes, or discounts on products or services) in accordance with the purposes of the Society.
- j. on removal of the Society from the Register of Incorporated Societies having its surplus assets distributed under subpart 5 of Part 5 of the Act to a Member that is a not-for-profit entity.

Tikanga, kawa, culture or practice

7. The tikanga or culture of the Society is as follows—
- a. We champion inclusiveness, good sportsmanship, team spirit and high standards of personal conduct among junior cricketers in the Porirua Region.
 - b. We are committed to fostering an environment where all junior cricketers have an enjoyable cricket experience, where they can develop a life-long love of the game while enhancing their cricket skills and knowledge.
 - c. We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of

- children and young persons and will adopt policies consistent with this commitment
- d. We work collectively and in good faith to achieve our purpose and promote junior cricket in the Porirua Region.

- 8. This Constitution shall be interpreted having regard to that tikanga, kawa, culture or practice.

Act and Regulations

- 9. Nothing in this Constitution authorises the Society to do anything which contravenes or is inconsistent with the Act, any regulations made under the Act, or any other legislation.

Restrictions on society powers

- 10. The Society must not be carried on for the financial gain of any of its members.
- 11. The Society's capacity, rights, powers, and privileges are subject to the following restrictions (if any)—
 - a. The Society must apply all property and income of the Society towards the promotion of the purposes of the Society and no part of that property or income to be paid or otherwise distributed, directly or indirectly, to members of the Club, except in good faith in the promotion of its purposes.

Registered office

- 12. The registered office of the Society shall be at such place in New Zealand as the Committee from time to time determines.
- 13. Changes to the registered office shall be notified to the Registrar of Incorporated Societies—
 - a. at least 5 working days before the change of address for the registered office is due to take effect, and
 - b. in a form and as required by the Act.

Contact person

- 14. The Society shall have at least 1 but no more than 3 contact person(s) whom the Registrar can contact when needed.
- 15. The Society's contact person must be:
 - a. At least 18 years of age, and

- b. Ordinarily resident in New Zealand.
16. A contact person can be appointed by the Committee or elected by the Members at a General Meeting.
17. Each contact person's name must be provided to the Registrar of Incorporated Societies, along with their contact details, including:

- a. a physical address or an electronic address, and
 - b. a telephone number.
18. Any change in that contact person or that person's name or contact details shall be advised to the Registrar of Incorporated Societies within 20 Working Days of that change occurring, or the Society becoming aware of the change.

Members

Minimum number of members

19. The Society shall maintain the minimum number of Members required by the Act.

Types of members

20. The classes of membership and the method by which Members are admitted to different classes of membership are as follows:
- a. Member
A Member is an individual or body corporate admitted to membership under this Constitution and who or which has not ceased to be a Member.
 - b. Life Member
A Life Member is a person honoured for highly valued services to the Society elected as a Life Member by resolution of a General Meeting passed by a simple majority of those Members present and voting. A Life Member shall have all the rights and privileges of a Member and shall be subject to all the same duties as a Member except those of paying subscriptions and levies.
 - c. Honorary Member
An Honorary Member is a person honoured for services to the Society or in an associated field elected as an Honorary Member by resolution of a General Meeting passed by a simple majority of those present and voting. An Honorary Member has no membership rights, privileges or duties.

Becoming a member: consent

21. Every applicant for membership must consent in writing to becoming a Member.
22. Any parent or legal caregiver of a child registered to participate in the activities of the Society is eligible to apply to become a Member. For the avoidance of doubt, no person becomes a Member of the Society solely by virtue of being a parent or caregiver. Membership requires the person's informed consent to membership as set out in this constitution.

Becoming a member: process

23. An applicant for membership must complete and sign any application form, supply any information, or attend an interview as may be reasonably required by the Committee regarding an application for membership and will become a Member on acceptance of that application by the Committee.
24. Parents or legal caregivers of a child registered to participate in the activities of the Society may apply to become a Member by completing the Society's prescribed registration form (including online forms). Submission of a completed registration form, including payment of any applicable fees, constitutes the applicant's explicit consent to become a Member of the Society for the purposes of the Incorporated Societies Act 2022. Upon the Committee's acceptance of a valid application form, the applicant will be recorded in the register of members and becomes a Member. Each parent/caregiver Member is an individual Member of the Society.
25. The Committee may decline an application for membership provided that the decision is made reasonably, in good faith, and consistently with the purposes of the Society. The Committee must advise the applicant of its decision.
26. The consent of every Member to become a Society Member shall be retained in the Society's membership records.

Members' obligations and rights

27. Every Member shall provide the Society in writing with that Member's name and contact details (namely, physical or email address and a telephone number) and promptly advise the Society in writing of any changes to those details.
28. All Members shall promote the interests and purposes of the Society and shall do nothing to bring the Society into disrepute.
29. A Member is only entitled to exercise the rights of membership (including attending and voting at General Meetings, accessing or using the Society's premises, facilities, equipment and other property, and participating in Society activities) if all subscriptions and any other fees have been paid to the Society by their respective due dates ('financial member'), but no

Member or Life Member is liable for an obligation of the Society by reason only of being a Member.

30. The Committee may decide what access or use Members may have of or to any premises, facilities, equipment or other property owned, occupied or otherwise used by the Society, and to participate in Society activities, including any conditions of and fees for such access, use or involvement.

Subscriptions and fees

31. The annual subscription and any other fees for membership for the then current financial year shall be set by resolution of a General Meeting (which can also decide that payment be made by periodic instalments).
32. Any Member failing to pay the annual subscription (including any periodic payment), any levy, or any capitation fees, within 20 Working Days of the date the same was due for payment shall be considered as unfinancial and shall (without being released from the obligation of payment) have no membership rights and shall not be entitled to participate in any Society activity or to access or use the Society's premises, facilities, equipment and other property until all the arrears are paid. If such arrears are not paid within 90 Working Days of the due date for payment of the subscription, any other fees, or levy the Committee may terminate the Member's membership. Before terminating membership under this clause, the Committee must give the Member written notice of the arrears and allow a reasonable period of not less than 10 Working Days for the Member to remedy the default.

Ceasing to be a member

33. A Member ceases to be a Member —
- a. by the membership lapsing in accordance with any renewal process set by the Society, or
 - b. by resignation from that Member's class of membership by written notice signed by that Member to the Committee, or
 - c. on termination of a Member's membership following a dispute resolution process under this Constitution, or
 - d. on death (or if a body corporate on liquidation or deregistration, or if a partnership on dissolution of the partnership), or
 - e. by resolution of the Committee where—
 - i. The Member has failed to pay a subscription, levy or other amount due to the Society within 90 Working Days of the due date for payment.

- ii. In the opinion of the Committee, following a dispute resolution process under this Constitution, the Member has brought the Society into disrepute.

34. Membership cessation takes effect from (as applicable) —

- a. the end date of any renewal process set by the Society

- b. the date of receipt of the Member's notice of resignation by the Committee (or any subsequent date stated in the notice of resignation), or

- c. the date of termination of the Member's membership under this Constitution, or

- d. the date of death of the Member (or if a body corporate from the date of its liquidation or deregistration, or if a partnership from the date of its dissolution), or

- e. the date specified in a resolution of the Committee and when a Member's membership has been terminated the Committee shall promptly notify the former Member in writing.

Obligations once membership has ceased

35. A Member who has ceased to be a Member under this Constitution—

- a. remains liable to pay all subscriptions and other fees to the Society's next balance date,
- b. shall cease to hold himself or herself out as a Member of the Society, and
- c. shall return to the Society all material provided to Members by the Society (including any membership certificate, badges, handbooks and manuals).
- d. shall cease to be entitled to any of the rights of a Society Member.

Becoming a member again

36. Any former Member may apply for re-admission in the manner prescribed for new applicants, and may be re-admitted only by resolution of the Committee.

37. But, if a former Member's membership was terminated following a disciplinary or dispute resolution process, the applicant may be re-admitted only by a resolution passed at a General Meeting on the recommendation of the Committee.

General meetings

Procedures for all general meetings

38. The Committee shall give all Members at least 10 Working Days' written Notice of any General Meeting and of the business to be conducted at that General Meeting.
39. That Notice will be addressed to the Member at the contact address notified to the Society and recorded in the Society's register of members. The General Meeting and its business will not be invalidated simply because one or more Members do not receive the Notice of the General Meeting.

40. Only financial Members may attend, speak and vote at General Meetings—
 - a. in person, or
 - b. by a signed original written proxy in favour of some individual entitled to be present at the meeting and received by, or handed to, the Committee before the commencement of the General Meeting, including a proxy submitted electronically that clearly identifies the Member and proxy holder and is received before the meeting, or
 - c. through the authorised representative of a body corporate as notified to the Committee, and
 - d. no other proxy voting shall be permitted.
41. No General Meeting may be held unless at least 8 eligible financial Members attend throughout the meeting and this will constitute a quorum.
42. If, within half an hour after the time appointed for a meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting – if convened upon request of Members – shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to a day, time and place determined by the Chairperson of the Society, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present those Members present in person or by proxy shall be deemed to constitute a sufficient quorum.
43. A Member is entitled to exercise one vote on any motion at a General Meeting in person or by proxy, and voting at a General Meeting shall be by voices or by show of hands or, on demand of the chairperson or of 2 or more Members present, by secret ballot.
44. Unless otherwise required by this Constitution, all questions shall be decided by a simple majority of those in attendance in person or by proxy and voting at a General Meeting or voting by remote ballot.
45. Any decisions made when a quorum is not present are not valid. For the avoidance of doubt, this clause does not apply to an adjourned meeting held under clause 43.

46. The Society may pass a written resolution in lieu of a General Meeting, and a written resolution is as valid for the purposes of the Act and this Constitution as if it had been passed at a General Meeting if it is approved by no less than 75 percent of the Members who respond to the resolution, provided at least a quorum participate. A written resolution may consist of 1 or more documents in similar form (including letters, electronic mail, or other similar means of communication) each proposed by or on behalf of 1 or more Members. A Member may give their approval to a written resolution by signing the resolution or giving approval to the resolution in any other manner permitted by the Constitution (for example, by electronic means).

- a. General Meetings may be held at one or more venues by Members present in person and/or using any real-time audio, audio and visual, or electronic communication that gives each Member a reasonable opportunity to participate.
- b. All General Meetings shall be chaired by the Chairperson. If the Chairperson is absent, the meeting shall elect another member of the Committee to chair that meeting.

47. Any person chairing a General Meeting may —

- a. With the consent of a simple majority of Members present at any General Meeting adjourn the General Meeting from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned General Meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- b. Direct that any person not entitled to be present at the General Meeting, or obstructing the business of the General Meeting, or behaving in a disorderly manner, or being abusive, or failing to abide by the directions of the chairperson be removed from the General Meeting, and
- c. In the absence of a quorum or in the case of emergency, adjourn the General Meeting or declare it closed.

48. The Committee may propose motions for the Society to vote on ('Committee Motions'), which shall be notified to Members with the notice of the General Meeting.

49. Any Member may request that a motion be voted on ('Member's Motion') at a General Meeting, by giving notice to the Secretary or Committee at least 10 Working Days before that meeting. The Member may also provide information in support of the motion ('Member's Information'). If notice of the motion is given to the Secretary or Committee before written Notice of the General Meeting is given to Members, notice of the motion shall be provided to Members with the written Notice of the General Meeting.

Minutes

50. The Society must keep minutes of all General Meetings.

Annual General Meetings: when they will be held

51. An Annual General Meeting shall be held once a year on a date and at a location and/or using any electronic communication determined by the Committee and consistent with any requirements in the Act, and the Constitution relating to the procedure to be followed at General Meetings shall apply.

52. The Annual General Meeting must be held no later than the earlier of the following—
- a. 6 months after the balance date of the Society
 - b. 15 months after the previous annual meeting.

Annual General Meetings: business

53. The business of an Annual General Meeting shall be to—
- a. confirm the minutes of the last Annual General Meeting and any Special General Meeting(s) held since the last Annual General Meeting,
 - b. adopt the annual report on the operations and affairs of the Society,
 - c. adopt the Committee's report on the finances of the Society, and the annual financial statements,
 - d. set any subscriptions for the current financial year,
 - e. consider any motions of which prior notice has been given to Members with notice of the Meeting, and
 - f. consider any general business.
54. The Committee must, at each Annual General Meeting, present the following information—
- a. an annual report on the operation and affairs of the Society during the most recently completed accounting period,
 - b. the annual financial statements for that period, and
 - c. notice of any disclosures of conflicts of interest made by Officers during that period (including a summary of the matters, or types of matters, to which those disclosures relate).

Special General Meetings

55. Special General Meetings may be called at any time by the Committee by resolution.
56. The Committee must call a Special General Meeting if it receives a written request signed by at least 10 percent of Members.
57. Any resolution or written request must state the business that the Special General Meeting is to deal with.
58. The rules in this Constitution relating to the procedure to be followed at General Meetings shall apply to a Special General Meeting, and a Special General Meeting shall only consider and deal with the business specified in the Committee's resolution or the written request by Members for the Meeting.

Committee

Committee composition

59. The Committee will consist of at least 5 Officers and no more than 10 Officers.
60. A majority of the Officers on the Committee must be either:
 - a. Members of the Society, or
 - b. representatives of bodies corporate that are Members of the Society.

Functions of the committee

61. From the end of each Annual General Meeting until the end of the next, the Society shall be managed by, or under the direction or supervision of, the Committee, in accordance with the Incorporated Societies Act 2022, any Regulations made under that Act, and this Constitution.

Powers of the committee

62. The Committee has all the powers necessary for managing — and for directing and supervising the management of — the operation and affairs of the Society, subject to such modifications, exceptions, or limitations as are contained in the Act or in this Constitution.

Sub-committees

63. The Committee may appoint sub-committees consisting of such persons (whether or not Members of the Society) and for such purposes as it thinks fit. Unless otherwise resolved by the Committee—

- a. the quorum of every sub-committee is half the members of the sub committee but not less than 2,
- b. no sub-committee shall have power to co-opt additional members,
- c. a sub-committee must not commit the Society to any financial expenditure without express authority from the Committee, and
- d. a sub-committee must not further delegate any of its powers.

General matters: committees

64. The Committee and any sub-committee may act by resolution approved during a conference call using audio and/or audio-visual technology or through a written ballot conducted by email, electronic voting system, or post, and any such resolution shall be recorded in the minutes of the next Committee or sub-committee meeting.

65. Other than as prescribed by the Act or this Constitution, the Committee or any sub-committee may regulate its proceedings as it thinks fit.

Committee meetings

Procedure

66. The quorum for Committee meetings is at least half of the number of members of the Committee.
67. A meeting of the Committee may be held either—
- a. by a number of the members of the Committee who constitute a quorum, being assembled together at the place, date and time appointed for the meeting; or
 - b. by means of audio, or audio and visual, communication by which all members of the Committee participating and constituting a quorum can simultaneously hear each other throughout the meeting.
68. A resolution of the Committee is passed at any meeting of the Committee if a majority of the votes cast on it are in favour of the resolution. Every Officer on the Committee shall have one vote.
69. The members of the Committee shall elect one of their number as chairperson of the Committee. If at a meeting of the Committee, the chairperson is not present, the members of the Committee present may choose one of their number to be chairperson of the meeting. The chairperson does have a casting vote in the event of a tied vote on any resolution of the Committee.

70. Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, the Committee may regulate its own procedure.

Frequency

71. The Committee shall meet as required at such times and places and in such manner (including by audio, audio and visual, or electronic communication) as it may determine and otherwise where and as convened by the Chairperson or Secretary.
72. The Secretary, or other Committee member nominated by the Committee, shall give to all Committee members not less than 5 Working Days' notice of Committee meetings, but in cases of urgency a shorter period of notice shall suffice.

- a. shall act in good faith and in what he or she believes to be the best interests of the Society,

- b. must exercise all powers for a proper purpose,
- c. must not act, or agree to the Society acting, in a manner that contravenes the Act or this Constitution,
- d. when exercising powers or performing duties as an Officer, must exercise the care and diligence that a reasonable person with the same responsibilities would exercise in the same circumstances taking into account, but without limitation:
 - i. the nature of the Society,
 - ii. the nature of the decision, and
 - iii. the position of the Officer and the nature of the responsibilities undertaken by him or her
- e. must not agree to the activities of the Society being carried on in a manner likely to create a substantial risk of serious loss to the Society or to the Society's creditors, or cause or allow the activities of the

Society to be carried on in a manner likely to create a substantial risk of serious loss to the Society or to the Society's creditors, and

- f. must not agree to the Society incurring an obligation unless he or she believes at that time on reasonable grounds that the Society will be able to perform the obligation when it is required to do so.

Election or appointment of officers

78. The election of Officers shall be conducted as follows.

- a. Officers shall be elected during Annual General Meetings. However, if a vacancy in the position of any Officer occurs between Annual General Meetings, that vacancy shall be filled by resolution of the Committee (and any such appointee must, before appointment, supply a signed consent to appointment and a certificate that the nominee is not disqualified from being appointed or holding office as a Officer (as described in the 'Qualification of Officers' rule above). Any such appointment must be ratified at the next Annual General Meeting.
- b. A candidate's written nomination, accompanied by the written consent of the nominee with a certificate that the nominee is not disqualified from being appointed or holding office as a Officer (as described in the 'Qualification of Officers' rule above) shall be received by the Society at least 5 Working Days before the date of the Annual General Meeting. If there are insufficient valid nominations received, further nominations may be received from the floor at the Annual General Meeting.

- c. Votes shall be cast in such a manner as the person chairing the meeting determines. In the event of any vote being tied, the tie shall be resolved by the incoming Committee (excluding those in respect of whom the votes are tied).
- d. Two Members (who are not nominees) or non-Members appointed by the Chairperson shall act as scrutineers for the counting of the votes and destruction of any voting papers.
- e. The failure for any reason of any financial Member to receive such Notice of the general meeting shall not invalidate the election.
- f. In addition to Officers elected under the foregoing provisions of this rule, the Committee may appoint other Officers for a specific purpose, or for a limited period, or generally until the next Annual General Meeting. Unless otherwise specified by the Committee any person so appointed shall have full speaking and voting rights as an Officer of the Society. Any such appointee must, before appointment, supply a signed consent to appointment and a certificate that the nominee is not disqualified from being appointed or holding office as an Officer (as described in the 'Qualification of Officers' rule above). The appointment of additional Officers must not cause the Committee to exceed the maximum number specified in clause 58.

Term

- 79. The term of office for all Officers elected to the Committee shall be 1 year(s), expiring at the end of the Annual General Meeting in the year corresponding with the last year of each Officer's term of office.
 - a. No Officer shall serve for more than 12 consecutive terms.
 - b. No Chairperson shall serve for more than 10 consecutive years as Chairperson.

Removal of officers

- 80. An Officer shall be removed as an Officer by resolution of the Committee or the Society where in the opinion of the Committee or the Society —

 - b. The Officer has brought the Society into disrepute.
 - c. The Officer has failed to disclose a conflict of interest.
 - d. The Committee passes a vote of no confidence in the Officer. e.

The Officer is found not to be a financial member of the Society with effect from (as applicable) the date specified in a resolution of the Committee or Society.

81. No Officer shall be removed under this clause unless the Officer has first been given written notice of the proposed removal and the grounds for it and has been given a reasonable opportunity to respond in accordance with the Society's dispute resolution procedures.

Ceasing to hold office

82. An Officer ceases to hold office when they resign (by notice in writing to the Committee), are removed, die, or otherwise vacate office in accordance with section 50(1) of the Act.
83. Each Officer shall within 14 Working Days of submitting a resignation or ceasing to hold office, deliver to the Committee all books, papers and other property of the Society held by such former Officer.

Indemnity and insurance

84. To the extent permitted by the Incorporated Societies Act 2022, the Society may indemnify an Officer for costs and liabilities incurred by that Officer in their capacity as an Officer of the Society.
85. The Society may effect insurance for an Officer or employee of the Society for liabilities or costs incurred in that capacity.
86. No indemnity or insurance shall be provided where it is prohibited by the Act.

Conflicts of interest

87. An Officer or member of a sub-committee who is an Interested Member in respect of any Matter being considered by the Society, must disclose details of the nature and extent of the interest (including any monetary value of the interest if it can be quantified)—
- a. to the Committee and or sub-committee, and
 - b. in an Interests Register kept by the Committee.
88. Disclosure must be made as soon as practicable after the Officer or member of a sub-committee becomes aware that they are interested in the Matter.
89. An Officer or member of a sub-committee who is an Interested Member regarding a Matter—

- a. must not vote or take part in the decision of the Committee and/or sub-committee relating to the Matter unless all members of the Committee who are not interested in the Matter consent; and
 - b. must not sign any document relating to the entry into a transaction or the initiation of the Matter unless all members of the Committee who are not interested in the Matter consent; but
 - c. may take part in any discussion of the Committee and/or sub-committee relating to the Matter and be present at the time of the decision of the Committee and/or sub-committee (unless the Committee and/or sub-committee decides otherwise).
90. However, an Officer or member of a sub-committee who is prevented from voting on a Matter may still be counted for the purpose of determining whether there is a quorum at any meeting at which the Matter is considered.
91. Where 50 per cent or more of Officers are prevented from voting on a Matter because they are interested in that Matter, a Special General Meeting must be called to consider and determine the Matter, unless all non-interested Officers agree otherwise.

92. Where 50 per cent or more of the members of a sub-committee are prevented from voting on a Matter because they are interested in that Matter, the Committee shall consider and determine the Matter.

Records

Register of Members

93. The Society shall keep an up-to-date Register of Members.
94. For each current Member, the information contained in the Register of Members shall include —
- a. Their name, and
 - b. The date on which they became a Member (if there is no record of the date they joined, this date will be recorded as 'Unknown'), and
 - c. Their contact details, including —
 - i. a physical address
 - ii. an email address, and
 - iii. a telephone number.

- d. Every current Member shall promptly advise the Society of any change of the Member's contact details.
- e. The Society shall also keep a record of the former Members of the Society. For each Member who ceased to be a Member within the previous 7 years, the Society will record:
 - i. The former Member's name, and
 - ii. The date the former Member ceased to be a Member.

Interests Register

- 95. The Committee shall at all times maintain an up-to-date register of the interests disclosed by Officers and by members of any sub-committee.

Access to information for members

- 96. A Member may at any time make a written request to the Society for information held by the Society.
- 97. The request must specify the information sought in sufficient detail to enable the information to be identified.
- 98. The Society must, within a reasonable time after receiving a request —
 - a. provide the information, or
 - b. agree to provide the information within a specified period, or
 - c. agree to provide the information within a specified period if the Member pays a reasonable charge to the Society (which must be specified and explained) to meet the cost of providing the information, or
 - d. refuse to provide the information, specifying the reasons for the refusal.
- 99. Without limiting the reasons for which the Society may refuse to provide the information, the Society may refuse to provide the information if —
 - a. withholding the information is necessary to protect the privacy of natural persons, including that of deceased natural persons, or
 - b. the disclosure of the information would, or would be likely to, prejudice the commercial position of the Society or of any of its Members, or
 - c. the disclosure of the information would, or would be likely to, prejudice the financial or commercial position of any other person, whether or not that person supplied the information to the Society, or

- d. the information is not relevant to the operation or affairs of the society, or
 - e. withholding the information is necessary to maintain legal professional privilege, or
 - f. the disclosure of the information would, or would be likely to, breach an enactment, or
 - g. the burden to the Society in responding to the request is substantially disproportionate to any benefit that the Member (or any other person) will or may receive from the disclosure of the information, or
 - h. the request for the information is frivolous or vexatious, or
 - i. the request seeks information about a dispute or complaint which is or has been the subject of the procedures for resolving such matters under this Constitution and the Act.
100. If the Society requires the Member to pay a charge for the information, the Member may withdraw the request, and must be treated as having done so unless, within 10 Working Days after receiving notification of the charge, the Member informs the Society —
- a. that the Member will pay the charge; or
 - b. that the Member considers the charge to be unreasonable.
101. Nothing in this rule limits Information Privacy Principle 6 of the Privacy Act 2020 relating to access to personal information.

20

Finances

Control and management

102. The funds and property of the Society shall be—
- a. controlled, invested and disposed of by the Committee, subject to this Constitution, and
 - b. devoted solely to the promotion of the purposes of the Society.
103. The Committee shall maintain bank accounts in the name of the Society.
104. All money received on account of the Society shall be banked within 20
Working Days of receipt.
105. All accounts paid or for payment shall be submitted to the Committee for approval of payment.
106. The Committee must ensure that there are kept at all times accounting records that—

- a. correctly record the transactions of the Society, and
- b. allow the Society to produce financial statements that comply with the requirements of the Act, and
- c. would enable the financial statements to be readily and properly audited (if required under any legislation or the Society's Constitution).

107. The Committee must establish and maintain a satisfactory system of control of the Society's accounting records.

108. The accounting records must be kept in written form or in a form or manner that is easily accessible and convertible into written form. And the accounting records must be kept for the current accounting period and for the last 7 completed accounting periods of the Society.

Balance date

109. The Society's financial year shall commence on 01/07 of each year and end on 30/06 (the latter date being the Society's balance date).

Dispute resolution

Meanings of dispute and complaint

110. A dispute is a disagreement or conflict involving the Society and/or its Members in relation to specific allegations set out below.

21

111. The disagreement or conflict may be between any of the following persons—

- a. 2 or more Members
- b. 1 or more Members and the Society
- c. 1 or more Members and 1 or more Officers
- d. 2 or more Officers
- e. 1 or more Officers and the Society
- f. 1 or more Members or Officers and the Society.

112. The disagreement or conflict relates to any of the following allegations—

- a. a Member or an Officer has engaged in misconduct

- b. a Member or an Officer has breached, or is likely to breach, a duty under the Society's Constitution or bylaws or the Act
 - c. the Society has breached, or is likely to breach, a duty under the Society's Constitution or bylaws or the Act
 - d. a Member's rights or interests as a Member have been damaged or Member's rights or interests generally have been damaged.
113. A complaint may be made in any other reasonable manner permitted by the Society's Constitution.
114. All Members (including the Committee) are obliged to cooperate to resolve disputes efficiently, fairly, and with minimum disruption to the Society's activities.
115. The complainant raising a dispute, and the Committee, must consider and discuss whether a dispute may best be resolved through informal discussions, mediation, arbitration, or a tikanga-based practice. Where mediation or arbitration is agreed on, the parties will sign a suitable mediation or arbitration agreement.

How complaint is made

116. A Member or an Officer may make a complaint by giving to the Committee (or a complaints subcommittee) a notice in writing that—
- a. states that the Member or Officer is starting a procedure for resolving a dispute in accordance with the Society's Constitution; and
 - b. sets out the allegation or allegations to which the dispute relates and whom the allegation is against; and
 - c. sets out any other information reasonably required by the Society.
117. The Society may make a complaint involving an allegation or allegations against a Member or an Officer by giving to the Member or Officer a notice in writing that—
- a. states that the Society is starting a procedure for resolving a dispute in accordance with the Society's Constitution; and
 - b. sets out the allegation to which the dispute relates.
118. The information setting out the allegations must be sufficiently detailed to be sufficient to ensure that a person against whom an allegation is made is fairly advised of the allegation or allegations concerning them, with sufficient details given to enable that person to prepare a response.
- a. A complaint may be made in any other reasonable manner permitted by the Society's Constitution.

Person who makes complaint has right to be heard

119. A Member or an Officer who makes a complaint has a right to be heard before the complaint is resolved or any outcome is determined.
120. If the Society makes a complaint—
- a. the Society has a right to be heard before the complaint is resolved or any outcome is determined; and
 - b. an Officer may exercise that right on behalf of the Society.
121. Without limiting the manner in which the Member, Officer, or Society may be given the right to be heard, they must be taken to have been given the right if—
- a. they have a reasonable opportunity to be heard in writing or at an oral hearing (if one is held); and
 - b. an oral hearing is held if the decision maker considers that an oral hearing is needed to ensure an adequate hearing; and
 - c. an oral hearing (if any) is held before the decision maker; and
 - d. the Member's, Officer's, or Society's written or verbal statement or submissions (if any) are considered by the decision maker.

Person who is subject of complaint has right to be heard

122. This clause applies if a complaint involves an allegation that a Member, an Officer, or the Society (the 'respondent')—
- a. has engaged in misconduct; or 23

- b. has breached, or is likely to breach, a duty under the Society's Constitution or bylaws or this Act; or
- c. has damaged the rights or interests of a Member or the rights or interests of Members generally.

The respondent has a right to be heard before the complaint is resolved or any outcome is determined.

123. If the respondent is the Society, an Officer may exercise the right on behalf of the Society.
124. Without limiting the manner in which a respondent may be given a right to be heard, a respondent must be taken to have been given the right if—

- a. the respondent is fairly advised of all allegations concerning the respondent, with sufficient details and time given to enable the respondent to prepare a response; and
- b. the respondent has a reasonable opportunity to be heard in writing or at an oral hearing (if one is held); and
- c. an oral hearing is held if the decision maker considers that an oral hearing is needed to ensure an adequate hearing; and
- d. an oral hearing (if any) is held before the decision maker; and
- e. the respondent's written statement or submissions (if any) are considered by the decision maker.

Investigating and determining dispute

125. The Society must, as soon as is reasonably practicable after receiving or becoming aware of a complaint made in accordance with its Constitution, ensure that the dispute is investigated and determined.
126. Disputes must be dealt with under the Constitution in a fair, efficient, and effective manner and in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

Society may decide not to proceed further with complaint

127. Despite the 'Investigating and determining dispute' rule above, the Society may decide not to proceed further with a complaint if—
- a. the complaint is considered to be trivial; or
 - b. the complaint does not appear to disclose or involve any allegation of the following kind:
 - i. that a Member or an Officer has engaged in material misconduct:
 - ii. that a Member, an Officer, or the Society has materially breached, or is likely to materially breach, a duty under the Society's Constitution or bylaws or the Act:
 - iii. that a Member's rights or interests or Members' rights or interests generally have been materially damaged:
 - c. the complaint appears to be without foundation or there is no apparent evidence to support it; or
 - d. the person who makes the complaint has an insignificant interest in the matter; or

- e. the conduct, incident, event, or issue giving rise to the complaint has already been investigated and dealt with under the Constitution; or
- f. there has been an undue delay in making the complaint.

Society may refer complaint

128. The Society may refer a complaint to—

- a. a subcommittee or an external person to investigate and report; or
- b. a subcommittee, an arbitral tribunal, or an external person to investigate and make a decision.

129. The Society may, with the consent of all parties to a complaint, refer the complaint to any type of consensual dispute resolution (for example, mediation, facilitation, or a tikanga-based practice).

Decision makers

130. A person may not act as a decision maker in relation to a complaint if 2 or more members of the Committee or a complaints subcommittee consider that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the person may not be—

- a. impartial; or
- b. able to consider the matter without a predetermined view.

Liquidation and removal from the register

Resolving to put society into liquidation

131. The Society may be liquidated in accordance with the provisions of Part 5 of the Act.

132. The Committee shall give 20 Working Days written Notice to all Members of the proposed resolution to put the Society into liquidation.

133. The Committee shall also give written Notice to all Members of the General Meeting at which any such proposed resolution is to be considered. The Notice shall include all information as required by section 228(4) of the Act.

134. Any resolution to put the Society into liquidation must be passed by a simple majority of all Members present and voting.

Resolving to apply for removal from the register

135. The Society may be removed from the Register of Incorporated Societies in accordance with the provisions of Part 5 of the Act.

136. The Committee shall give 20 Working Days written Notice to all Members of the proposed resolution to remove the Society from the Register of Incorporated Societies.
137. The Committee shall also give written Notice to all Members of the General Meeting at which any such proposed resolution is to be considered. The Notice shall include all information as required by section 228(4) of the Act.
138. Any resolution to remove the Society from the Register of Incorporated Societies must be passed by a simple majority of all Members present and voting.

Surplus assets

139. If the Society is liquidated or removed from the Register of Incorporated Societies, no distribution shall be made to any Member.
140. On the liquidation or removal from the Register of Incorporated Societies of the Society, its surplus assets — after payment of all debts, costs and liabilities — shall be vested in one or more not-for-profit entities whose purpose includes the promotion of junior sport within the wider Porirua region.
141. However, in any resolution under this rule, the Society may approve a different distribution to a different not-for-profit entity from that specified above, so long as the Society complies with this Constitution and the Act in all other respects.

Alterations to the constitution

Amending this constitution

142. All amendments must be made in accordance with this Constitution. Any minor or technical amendments shall be notified to Members as required by section 31 of the Act.

26

143. The Society may amend or replace this Constitution at a General Meeting by a resolution passed by a two-thirds of majority of those Members present and voting.
144. That amendment may be approved by a resolution passed in lieu of a meeting but only if authorised by this Constitution.
145. Any proposed resolution to amend or replace this Constitution shall be signed by at least 10 per cent of eligible Members or be proposed by the Committee and given in writing to the Committee at least 10 Working Days before the General Meeting at which the resolution is to be considered and accompanied by a written explanation of the reasons for the proposal.

146. At least 5 Working Days before the General Meeting at which any amendment is to be considered the Committee shall give to all Members notice of the proposed resolution, the reasons for the proposal, and any recommendations the Committee has.

147. When an amendment is approved by a General Meeting it shall be notified to the Registrar of Incorporated Societies in the form and manner specified in the Act for registration, and shall take effect from the date of registration.

Other

Common seal

148. The Society will have a common seal that must be kept in the custody of the Chairperson.

149. The common seal may be affixed to any document:

- a. by resolution of the Committee, and must be countersigned by 2 Officers or
- b. by such other means as the Committee may resolve from time to time.

Bylaws

150. The Committee from time to time may make and amend bylaws, and policies for the conduct and control of Society activities and codes of conduct applicable to Members, but no such bylaws, policies or codes of conduct applicable to Members shall be inconsistent with this Constitution, the Act, regulations made under the Act, or any other legislation.
