Sugar Grove America 250 Bench Dedication Ceremony

The Sugar Grove America 250 Bench Dedication Ceremony took place on Saturday, July 25, 2026, at Veterans Park in Sugar Grove. This bench was installed to commemorate America 250 and honor our veterans. Crafted from white oak by A Call to Shoulders, along with James, Ryan, and Sugar Grove Trustee Mike Roskopf, the bench symbolizes strength and community.

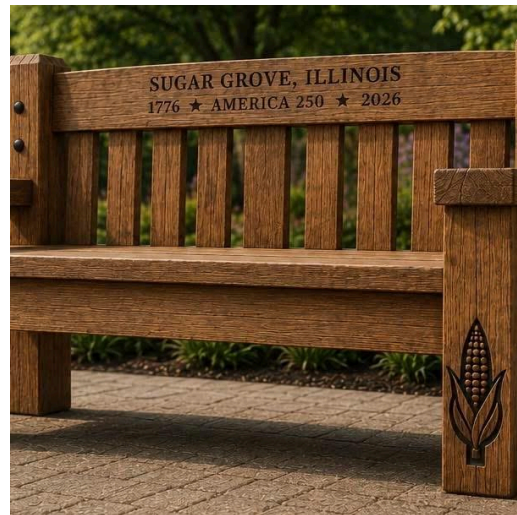

Attendees included Matt McCannon, a member of the original Veterans Park Team, and many community members who gathered to celebrate this meaningful occasion. Janie Panagopoulos from the Sugar Grove Historical Society spoke about the history of Veterans Park and its significance to the community. Greg Zilioli, the founder of A Call to Shoulders, shared how the project represents the transformation of his workshop into a community-focused mission. He also gave special recognition to Sugar Grove President Sue Stillwell for her leadership in partnering with A Call to Shoulders.

Thank you to Keriann Dubina for her beautiful design of the Veteran's Park Garden and for speaking at the event.

We also appreciate all the volunteers from the Sugar Grove Beautification & Gardening Committee for their ongoing upkeep of the garden.

We want to extend our gratitude to the Sugar Grove Public Works Team for their hard work and to Sugar Grove Boy Scout Troop 11 for placing the flags in the park.
