Date: December 3, 2026
Session One - Introduction & Mustard Seed
There is something fascinating about your family history. In this introduction to Church history, Catholics begin a twenty-part study through the historical narrative of their Church. This session portrays how the good story unfolds like the growth of a small seed.
Workbook	Pages 5 - 12

Date: December 10, 2026
Session Two - Persecution - Part I
The blood of the martyrs plants the seeds for the Catholic faith In this session, you learn all about the brutal persecution of Christians by the Roman Empire for nearly 200 years. Some individual martyrs are highlighted for their witness to the Church.
Workbook	Pages 13 - 16

Date: January 7, 2027
Session Three - Persecution - Part II
The time period of persecution continues in this session, as you uncover the teachings of the first Christians against the untrue attacks of pagans. You explore different apologies that help explain the early marks of the Church.
Workbook	Pages 17 - 22

Date: January 14, 2027
Session Four - Conversion & Councils - Part I
Ending the last session with the Great Persecution, you now begin a new time period known as Conversion & Councils. This session explains the time period lasting from A.D. 313 until 499, and shows the active work of the Holy Spirit in the Catholic Church.
Workbook	Pages 23 - 26

Date: January 21, 2027
Session Five - Conversion & Councils - Part II
Big things are happening in the Church! This session covers Part II of Conversion & Councils, which includes two colossal conversions and four major councils of the early Church. You dissolve the Arian heresy, formulate the Nicene Creed, and even hear about other heresies and the collapse of the Roman Empire in the West.
Workbook	Pages 27 - 32

Date: January 28, 2027
Session Six - Missionaries & The Emperor - Part I
The next time period in Church history is known as Missionaries & the Emperor. As the Western Empire falls, the papacy becomes under attack by secular forces. The rise of Islam also enters the scene in this session, creating a desperate need for missionaries during this time of turmoil.
Workbook	Pages 33 - 36

Date: February 4, 2027
Session Seven - Missionaries & The Emperor - Part II
In Part II of Missionaries & the Emperor, the focus revolves around uprooting heresies that threaten the truth of the Christian faith. This session underlines the important teachings of Emperor Charlemagne in the life of the Church.
Workbook	Pages 37 - 42

Date: February 11, 2027
Session Eight - Crusaders & Scholars - Part I
At the high water mark of Christendom, you enter into the time period of Crusaders & Scholars. This session exposes the strong spiritual legacy and intense military activity at the beginning of the second millennium. Part one of this time period covers the important reforms happening at this time and speaks about the beginnings of the First Crusade.
Workbook	Pages 43 - 48

Date: February 18, 2027
Session Nine - Crusaders & Scholars - Part II
In Part II of Crusaders & Scholars, finish learning about the First Crusade and the Battle of Jerusalem and continue as far as the failure of the Fourth Crusade. The best part of this session is the many miracles occurring during these battles.
Workbook	Pages 49 - 54

Date: February 25, 2027
Session Ten - Crusaders & Scholars - Part III
In this last part of the time period on Crusaders & Scholars, learn about saints and kings, and conclude by finishing off with the last of the eight Criusades. This session covers an interesting time period for the Church and the world.
Workbook	Pages 55 - 60

Date: March 4, 2027
Session Eleven - Weak Leaders & Schism - Part I
Warning ! You are about to enter into a dark time period of Church history known as Weak Leaders & Schism. You hear about the danger that occurs when the leaders of the Church abuse their power in efforts to be seen as renaissance men rather than shepherds of souls.
Workbook	Pages 61 - 64

Date: March 11, 2027
Session Twelve - Weak Leaders & Schism - Part II
In this second part of Weak Leaders & Schism, find out how the Council of Constance reconciles the Great Western Schism and attacks the heresies of Jan Hus in an effort to eradicate false Christian teachings. This session lays the backdrop that eventually paints the scene for the Protestant Reformation.
Workbook	Pages 65 - 70

Date: March 18, 2027
Session Thirteen - Protestors & Defenders - Part I
Buckle up for the breakup of Christendom during this time period known as Protesters & Defenders. It is one of the most interesting and saddening times of Church history. In Part I, you are introduced to important players, such as the last two Renaissance Popes and Martin Luther.
Workbook	Pages 71 - 74

Date: April 1, 2027
Session Fourteen - Protestors & Defenders – Part II
In Part II of Protesters & Defenders, you run through the Protestant Revolution, come to a better understanding of John Calvin in comparison to Martin Luther, and learn the lasting effects of these attacks on the Catholic Faith.
Workbook	Pages 75 - 80

Date: April 8, 2027
Session Fifteen - The Catholic Reformation – Part I
Enter into a new time period in this session, known as the Catholic Reformation. The Church undertakes authentic reform of doctrine, discipline, and devotion in an effort to crystallize its firm foundation. As a result, many Christians begin returning to the Church first established by Christ.
Workbook	Pages 81 - 84

Date: April 15, 2027
Session Sixteen - The Catholic Reformation - Part II
Finish off the time period of Catholic Reformation, as this session remembers the Catholic response to Christian protest. Part II finishes by teaching about the Council of Trent. The Liturgy is renewed and Church teachings are reviewed, clarified, and published into one Catechism.
Workbook	Pages 85 - 90

Date: April 22, 2027
Session Seventeen - Revolutions & Modernism
It's a new day in Church history as Europe tries to move away from her Christian root s. This session covers the sixteenth to the eighteenth centuries, in which the Church encounters revolution, enlightenment, and modernism.
Workbook	Pages 91 - 96

Date: April 29, 2027
Session Eighteen - A World at War
Earth was devastated by two world wars in the early twentieth century. Themes including fascism, communism, and socialism are explained in depth, with emphasis on personal loyalty in servitude to the state . This session explains how the Church fits into these ideologies.
Workbook	Pages 97 - 102

Date: May 6, 2027
Session Nineteen - The New Springtime
The Church sees a new springtime in the time period following the post-modern period of death and destruction. The Second Vatican Council is called to bring about renewal to the world and fervor for evangelization.
Workbook	Pages 103 - 108

Date: May 13, 2027
Session Twenty - The Threshold of Hope & Conclusion
Finish this twenty-part study on the history of the Catholic Church by crossing into the Threshold of Hope. This fascinating history of the Catholic Faith concludes by portraying how Christ is central to this epic story. The Holy Spirit is still alive in the Church today!
Workbook	Pages 109 - 114