HTC on the Move!

Sharing the Mission. Building Connections. Reaching Beyond Borders.

“How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!” — Rom. 10:15 (NIV)

This summer, Haiti Teen Challenge has been on the move—sharing the Gospel, telling the HTC story, and creating new opportunities for people to discover what God is doing through this ministry in Haiti. In many ways, it is MOBILIZE in action: taking the mission beyond our walls and inviting others to see, hear, pray, give, and become part of what God is doing.

In June, John Bermel, HTC’s Vice President of U.S. Operations, had the opportunity to preach the Word at Zion Temple of Grace, a Haitian church in Minneapolis. It was a meaningful opportunity not only to share the hope of the Gospel, but also to connect with the Haitian community and raise awareness of HTC’s mission and the transforming work God is doing in lives through Christ.

That connection continues to grow. John has since been invited back to the church as the guest speaker for its third anniversary celebration—a wonderful example of how sharing the HTC story can open doors, build relationships, and create new opportunities for ministry and partnership.

HTC's reach also extended into the missions community this summer, as Julio Volcy, our CEO, represented Haiti Teen Challenge at the Beulah Beach 2026 Bible & Missions Conference in Ohio. Gatherings like these provide valuable opportunities to share what God is doing in Haiti, strengthen relationships with ministry partners, and introduce HTC to people who may be hearing our story for the first time.

Meanwhile, in Ottawa, Canada, HTC was represented at a youth choir concert, where an information table gave concertgoers an opportunity to learn more about the ministry and its great work in Haiti.

And at another summer gathering, HTC Board Vice Chair Vicki Jefferis represented the ministry at the 80th birthday celebration of a prominent Minnesota builder, where Haiti Teen Challenge was selected as the featured charitable ministry. The occasion provided a unique opportunity to introduce new friends to HTC and share the life-changing work God is doing through the power of the Gospel.

And in Haiti, HTC's Prison Ministry was also on the move. Young men who have been released from prison and continue to receive support through HTC's Prison Ministry showcased handmade crafts—including bags and other items they had created—at the Oasis Hotel during Journée des Mineurs, a special event focused on Haiti's youth and minors. Organized by Haiti's Institute of Social Welfare and Research (IBESR), the gathering also gave Haiti Teen Challenge an opportunity to present its mission and work while highlighting the skills, creativity, and potential of these young men as they build their lives beyond incarceration.

From churches to conferences, from concerts to community gatherings, every opportunity to share the HTC story helps extend the mission's reach. As we MOBILIZE people around that mission and EQUIP men and women to move forward in purpose, we create space for God to TRANSFORM lives—and, by His grace and through the faithful partnership of His people (you and me!), SUSTAIN this work for the future.

You can help us keep moving.

Where could HTC go next? Think about the gatherings already on your calendar—a church service or ministry event, a missions conference, community gathering, youth event, birthday celebration, retirement party, anniversary, fundraiser, or other special occasion. Could one of them become an opportunity to introduce others to Haiti Teen Challenge?

Invite HTC to share our story, host an information table, speak about the ministry, or simply be present as a featured charitable organization. Every invitation is an opportunity to build a new connection, broaden the circle of people who know about the ministry, and invite others to become part of what God is doing in Haiti.

You really can help us keep moving. Your partnership helps us EQUIP men and women, MOBILIZE others around the mission, and SUSTAIN the ministry as we make room for God to TRANSFORM lives.

Won't you join us in that work? Donate today!

Join Us in Prayer for Haiti

On the first Wednesday of every month at 7:00 a.m. Central Time, people with a heart for Haiti come together for 20 minutes of concerted prayer and intercession.

Ministry partners, churches, missionaries, Haitians and friends of Haiti—and, of course, Haiti Teen Challenge—come together from wherever we are to intercede for Haiti, its people, its leaders, its churches, its communities, and the many ministries serving throughout the nation.

It's a simple but powerful opportunity to stand together in prayer, seek God, and lift up the nation of Haiti before Him.

Sign up for our Haiti Prayer List, and we'll send you the Zoom link and details in advance of each monthly prayer gathering.
