A New Year, A New Life

As we step into a new year, we pause to celebrate the beautiful evidence of new life unfolding within our ministry family. Between late November and the close of December, four couples connected to our work—graduates and team members—entered into the covenant of marriage. Their unions are moments of joy, but they are also powerful testimonies of God's transforming grace.

Not long ago, many of these young men and women faced destructive lifestyles and uncertain futures. Through Christ-centered discipleship, accountability, and hope restored, their stories have been rewritten. Today, they stand as faith-filled husbands and wives, laying foundations for new families that will bless their communities, strengthen Haitian society, and advance the Kingdom of God.

This is transformation—one of the four pillars of our ministry—made visible. Scripture reminds us, “If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come” (2 Corinthians 5:17).

And when we mention a family affair, we really do mean it! Bénédicte (who married Néliane) and Francina (who married Yves James, also an HTC grad) are siblings and HTC graduates! Bénédicte and his wife are seated behind his sister, Francina, and her husband.
