Hope Behind Bars: A Life Released, A Mission Still URGENT!

As we approach the final hours of the year, we are encouraged by what God is doing through our prison ministry in Haiti — a calling rooted in Jesus' words: "I was in prison and you came to visit me" (Matthew 25:36).

Just recently, a young man (name withheld for his protection) was released after spending five long years in detention, having been apprehended at only 13 years old.

Through faithful presence, prayer, discipleship, and advocacy, our team walked with him until freedom became possible.

His release is a powerful testimony that transformation can begin even behind bars.

But many others are still waiting.

Our tireless team continues to visit prisons, bringing hope, the Word of God, and practical support to young men and women preparing for reintegration.

The need is urgent — and the window to respond is closing.

As of today, December 30, there is only a limited time left to act.

A generous donor has offered a $100,000 matching gift, dollar for dollar, through December 31.

Every gift made now is immediately doubled, enabling us to reach more incarcerated men, women, and yes, even children, and support their return to society.

Please give today. Your generosity helps open doors, restore dignity, and bring Christ's light where it is needed most.

Together, We Can Bring Hope and Transformation!
Your prayers, partnership, and support make this work possible.
