

ROOTED + GROWING Resilient IN IMPACT

A New Door of Hope Opens

Haiti Teen Challenge officially launched its new Prison Ministry in partnership with Rendez-Vous Church (RVC) in Port-au-Prince, which marked a powerful moment of hope and transformation.

Extending Hope Where It's Needed Most

The new initiative takes HTC's mission beyond its residential and community programs—bringing spiritual care, mentoring, and tangible support to men, women, and even children behind bars. Through this ministry, HTC seeks to bring light into places often forgotten, helping incarcerated individuals rediscover their dignity and purpose in Christ.

A Moment of Unity and Vision

The launch gathered community members, church leaders, and dignitaries—including Delmas Mayor Wilson Jeudy—to witness this milestone moment.

“This ministry is rooted in Matthew 25:36: ‘I was in prison and you came to visit me,’” shared Pastor Julio Volcy, CEO of Haiti Teen Challenge and Senior Pastor of RVC Church. “We believe God calls us to walk alongside those behind bars, sharing freedom, dignity, and renewal.”

Beyond the Walls

The HTC Prison Ministry will provide:

- Spiritual guidance and discipleship
- Psychosocial and mental-health support
- Legal and health assistance
- Post-prison reintegration support
- Ongoing mentorship and encouragement

This holistic approach reflects HTC's ongoing mission—to raise up godly leaders of integrity and restore hope to families, youth, and communities throughout Haiti.

Together, We Can Bring Hope Behind Bars

Your prayers, partnership, and support make this work possible.
