

Grow in Faith.
Connect in Community.

Held in the Upper Meeting Room
at 11:00 AM following Sunday worship, this series offers thoughtful conversation, engaging topics, and inspiring voices.

Say "Yes!" to growing together at Wilton Congregational.

Second Hour Program

Feb. 1

Creative Writing with George Choundas

A National Endowment for the Arts Creative Writing Fellow and former FBI agent, George Choundas is an award-winning creative writer whose work has appeared in more than 75 publications.

Feb. 8

End-of-Life Planning with Pam Brown & Paul Burnham

Pam Brown is the Executive Director of WCC and Hillside Cemetery and Paul Burnham is a Wilton trusts and estates attorney and WCC lay leader.

March 1

Elder Care with Ann Cason

Ann Cason retired after more than 40 years as a geriatric care manager and consultant. She is the founder of a nonprofit agency devoted to elder care at home and the author of Circles of Care: How to Set Up Quality Care for Our Elders in the Comfort of Their Own Homes.

March 8

Judaism with Cantor Harriet Dunkerley

Cantor Dunkerley is the Congregational Leader of Temple B'nai Chaim in Wilton.

March 15

Mentorship with Scott Crosby

Scott Crosby is the founder and CEO of Global Cities Group. He has spent 40 years working in universities and with young professionals in major cities to build a "faithful presence" in our key professions.

April 12

Climate Change with Peter Croce

Peter Croce is a Director at Probable Futures, a non-profit climate literacy initiative that makes climate science accessible and understandable.

April 19

Poetry with Tom Koch & Alexander Stroup

Tom Koch is a poet and educator. Alexander Stroup was one of Tom's students and is now a poet himself!

April 26

Meditation with Catherine Stroup

Catherine Stroup is a meditation leader and WCC lay leader.