13 WEEKS

No Class April 2

JULY 16 – OCTOBER 15 (13 Weeks)

No Class Aug. 6

This class is open only to INTERMEDIATE AND BASIC LEVEL STUDENTS who have previously studied with the Prosocon School of Iconology or with Faye Drobnic. Students should have a basic understanding of the Prosocon techniques of roskrish, highlights and floats, and they must be able to mix their own paint. Please email me if you have questions.

THE PURPOSE OF THE CLASS is to encourage students' independent work, using the skills you have learned in previous classes. This is an opportunity for you to work independently on projects of your choice with the support and guidance from a teacher and to master techniques you have previously learned in project classes and workshops.

- The goal is to finish your unfinished projects or to work on new projects of your choice with the assistance of tutorial packets or instructional material from prior workshops or classes. You will set your own goal at the beginning of the class as to what work you want to accomplish over the course of the class.
- A Zoom link to the weekly classes will be emailed to you a few days before the first class, along with a designated email address for you to send photos of your work.
- You must work from a prototype: the picture of a completed icon (from a workshop or another source) or a tutorial packet with instructions. Tutorial Packets may be purchased here: <http://www.stelizabethiconstudio.com/tutorial-packets/> Boards and other supplies are also available: <https://www.stelizabethiconstudio.com/supplies-2/>
- Once a week you will email a photo of your work to a designated email address. We critique each photo individually in the Tuesday classes at 2:00 pm & 7:00 pm. You may attend either or both classes. Critiques will take place only in these classes. These classes are not recorded; you must be present for your critique.
- These weekly meetings will help you to stay on track, and the critiques will help you overcome any challenges you may encounter! You will also benefit for the information discussed in the critiques of other students' work in the class.

CLASS COST: $150 for 13 weeks of Independent Study with Critique Classes.
