

Life is a Quest Retreat

A great weekend of Medieval Knight skill events:

Jousting on 6 ft Wooden horses,
Boffer Sword Arena,
Archery & Hatchet Competitions

The Camp will be split into 3-5 Father son team households. We will present each household with Tunics representing your household:

—Bears, Falcons, Stallions, Rams—

Friday night will begin with Wood-fired brick oven pizza in camp and devotion at Grizzly's.
The night concludes with assigning Household participants, tunics, quivers & belts, Safety & ID Staffs, and Household Officer Charges:

—Chancellors, Court Heralds, Stewards, & Master at Arms—

And a Fellowship Fire for some frivolity and Household Bonding, following assignments.

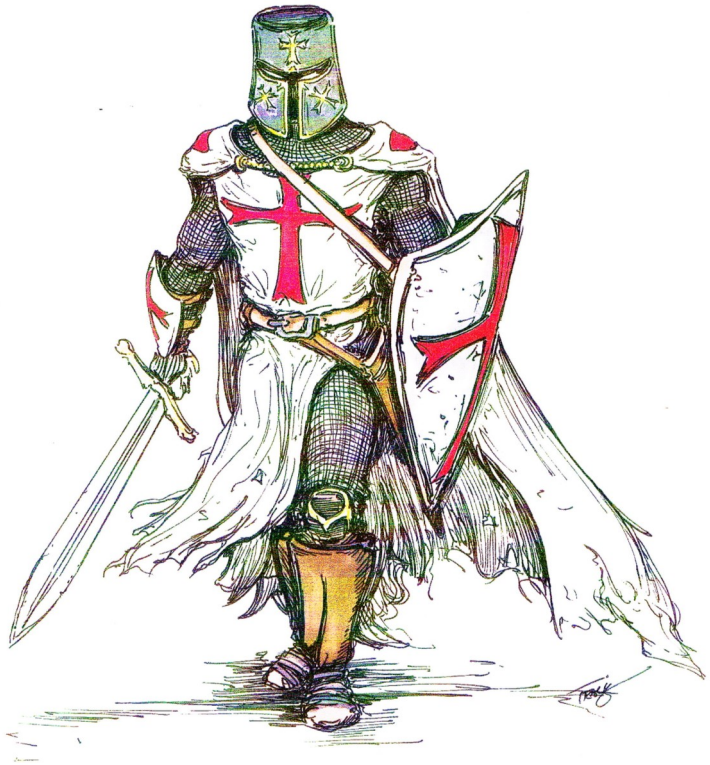

Saturday activities will begin with breakfast and then Individual Household Field Event practices at 4 different venues.

Lunch & then Afternoon—Household Competitions

Saturday evening will be a great time for fellowship around a camp fire and a chance to tell stories of the day.

Sunday morning Breakfast and then Sanctuary Service prior to breaking camp.

Life is a Quest

Put on the Full Armor of God!—Ephesians 6:10-18

How do we know if we are even qualified for leadership?
Why were we given the Armor of God, and what do chinks or PITS in our armor disqualify us or are they a sign of experience?

There are 2 types of leaders:

Peace time administrators—Men who maintain a fort where territory has been won.

War Time Generals—Men who step out onto a new field of battle yet to be won.

Discovering our leadership gifts and callings are needed so we know what skills we need to work on as Mighty Men of God.

Household Duties & Offices

Chancellor

Takes charge of the Household and makes final decisions for Household. He oversees other Officers in his Household.

Court Herald

Receives invitation to announce his Household at meals. Household is to remain behind him until invited to the Stone Table. The announcement must be festive and creative, or the household will be sent to the rear of the line. Tantalizing songs, wit and regality of spirit is expected.

The Herald is also responsible for the Household ID Staff. If another household finds the staff unattended, they may capture it and bring it to the next meal. The Herald without an ID staff wil make for great dinner entertainment for the table.

Master at Arms

Acts as Range Officer. All field activities will be run safely and with adult supervision under his direction at venues. You will be issued a 5ft staff to use to stop and start Field Engagements, and intervene with the staff to break up heated moments in mock battles.

Steward

Equipment and Cleanup charge. Responsible for maintaining all group assigned gear and returning Household items to storage areas. This includes field activity gear, tunics, quivers, belts, Herald and Master at Arms staffs.
He makes assignments for his household of sweeping out buildings, general camp cleanup assignments for his Household after events finish on Saturday, and Sunday break of camp.

Knights of the Roundtable Menu

Friday pm;
Round Table Flat Bread, Brew of the Realm

Saturday;

am Royal French Toast, Pig Meat, Hen's Eggs, Hash Potatoes, Jester's Brew

noon Lancelot's Links in a Bun, Beans, Chips, Fruit of the Harvest, Brew of the Realm

King's Feast
Arthurs Baked Turkey,
Potatoes, Veggies of the Harvest,
Royal French Bread,
Archers Apple Pie, Brew of the Realm

Sunday am;
Duke's Danish, Squire Gravy & Biscuits, Dragon's Eggs,
Jester's Brew