A divorced mother of 4 teenagers, 3 of them boys, recently came to us for help with her water bill and need for food. She had come to El Paso to work with refugee children and did this for a while. When the funding for her job was cut, she recognized that there is a great need for mental health counselors and decided to get her Master's degree to qualify to be a mental health counselor. She and her children are living on an inadequate amount of child support and a student loan while she works hard to get her degree by December. She had a disconnect notice on her water bill, was low on food and didn't know how she would manage. With 4 teenagers to support, taking care of the water bill was a good investment to make in someone who is working towards being a provider of needed mental health services in El Paso. When she was told that her water bill would be paid, she cried tears of gratitude. She was also very grateful for the food, personal hygiene products, and laundry detergent that the food pantry was able to provide her. Your continued generosity makes this possible and has once shared the Glory and Love of God Almighty.

Sociedad de San Vicente de Paul.

Una madre divorciada y con cuatro adolescentes, tres de ellos hombres, vinieron a vernos recientemente con el recibo de agua y pidiendo comida. Ella había llegado a El Paso a trabajar con niños refugiados y así lo hizo por buen tiempo. Cuando los fondos para su trabajo fueron eliminados, ella vio la necesidad existente por asesores de salud mental y decidió estudiar una Maestría en asesoría de salud mental. Ella y sus hijos viven con una inadecuada pensión alimenticia y un préstamo escolar mientras ella trabaja fuerte en obtener su título en Diciembre. Ella recibió aviso de suspensión de agua en su recibo, tenía muy poca comida y no sabía cómo iba a solventar la situación. Con cuatro adolescentes que alimentar, hacerse cargo del recibo de agua era una decisión importante para alguien que trabajaría en proveer muy importante salud mental en El Paso. Cuando se le dijo que le pagaríamos el recibo de agua, ella lloró lágrimas de agradecimiento. Ella también estuvo muy agradecida por la comida, productos de higiene personal y los detergentes para ropa que la Despensa de Alimentos le pudo entregar. Su continua generosidad una vez más a compartido la Gloria y el Amor De Dios Todopoderoso.
