Answering the Call

A new fraternal year begins, and there's no better time to remember the man who started it all. Michael McGivney was born August 12, 1852, in Waterbury, Connecticut, to Irish immigrant parents, and entered eternal life on August 14, 1890, at just 38. The Church now keeps his feast on August 13 — the day between his birth and death. In under a decade of parish ministry, this quiet young priest built something that today unites more than two million Catholic men around the world.

Did You Know? Father McGivney once had to leave the seminary to work in a Waterbury brass factory and support his family after his own father died — the very hardship that later inspired him to protect Catholic families through the Knights.*

If you have ever felt called to become a Knight, take it to prayer this month. Ask the Holy Spirit for guidance, and if you sense His invitation, speak with any Knight after Mass or contact us below.

"Green Sex: Care for Our Common Home"

Join us on Monday, August 17, at 6:30 PM in the parish hall for this enlightening presentation. Learn to shift from exploitation to mutual respect for a deeper spiritual life and healthier human connections.

Based on Dr. J. P. Soto's 2024 article "Green Sex and Laudato Si" in the Journal of Catholic Higher Education, this presentation uses Pope Francis's encyclical to guide participants through interactive reflections and art. Attendees will experience how aligning ecological responsibility with relational ethics sparks an interior conversion rooted in deep empathy, healed human relationships, and spiritual peace.

Our speaker, Dr. Jean Ponder Soto is an El Paso native with over 40 years of experience in lay ministry, social justice, and adult faith formation across the U.S., Mexico, and Europe. She has taught at various universities and is currently adjunct faculty at Santa Clara University. We look forward to seeing you there!
