

Minister Search

JOB POSTING

24 August 2025

A Church of Christ Minister / Evangelist Position

The South Oak Church of Christ in Dime Box, Texas is seeking a full-time Minister / Evangelist. This minister oversees the day to day administrative functions of office supervision. He will be intimately involved in managing the education and small group program of the church. He will also be available to assist other ministries. The minister will collaborate with our active leadership and work closely with our membership as we implement our vision and ministries.

The congregation currently has 33 members, 0 elders and 0 deacons, 1 interim minister, and volunteer support staff, as needed.

A strong foundation in the sound doctrine of Jesus Christ is required in this ministry related field.

Qualifications and Duties

Applicants will meet the following qualifications:

- Be a faithful, Christ centered man, with a servant heart
- Have a flexible history with church work
- Have a team building and collaborative style
- Be adept working with a diverse congregation and leadership team
- Be outgoing, people focused, and relationship driven
- Have excellent communication skills
- Be organized, detailed, and purpose driven
- Weekly compensation of $350

Applicants will be familiar with the following "key duties" (not an all-inclusive list):

- Collaboratively lead team of leaders in fulfilling church vision, goals, and direction
- Work closely with leadership in developing and implementing vision, goals, and ministries
- Serve as organizer for the education and small group program and work with respective leaders and ministries

- Initial contact for church related inquiries and needs, provide direction and guidance to appropriate ministries and leaders
- Primary preaching or pulpit duties is required
- Other ministry, business and administrative duties will be included
- Application Process
 - Please email your application information to southoakchurchofchrist@yahoo.com by November 24, 2025 (unless this date is extended).

Please submit:

- A current, detailed resume
- A profile letter describing your experience, skills, leadership style, additional information relative to your qualifications, and why you desire this position.
- References that can be contacted during the evaluation phase.