Gordian Staffing is expanding its services to help clients find qualified candidates for remote, hybrid, and in-office positions across the U.S. Our team handles the sourcing, screening, and coordination — you stay in full control of the hiring decision and make the offer directly.

How It Works

Our domestic recruiting service follows a straightforward, four-step process:

- Position Confirmation — We work with you to define the role, requirements, salary range, and timeline.
- Sourcing & Screening — Our recruiting team actively sources candidates, reviews resumes, and conducts phone or video screens.
- Candidate Presentation — We deliver a slate of at least three interview-ready candidates, each with recruiter notes.
- Interview Coordination — We help schedule interviews between your team and the candidates. From there, you take it home.

"Traditional recruiting agencies charge 15–25% of a new hire's salary — on a $70,000 hire, that's $10,500 to $17,500. Gordian handles the same sourcing and screening for a flat fee and delivers interview-ready candidates. You stay in full control of the hiring decision and make the offer directly — with no commission surprise."
