Sacrificial Giving

When the Son of Man comes in glory, may we be among those who have fed the hungry, welcomed the stranger, and clothed the naked. For Jesus tells us clearly that it is those who have demonstrated good stewardship by sharing their gifts with the less fortunate who will receive God's blessing and inherit the kingdom.

Dear Friends

Dear Friends,

It strikes me that there seems to be a sort of existential rift in the cosmos of life this time of year. On one side, we enter into the holiday season and in it there is shopping, rushing, and parties; everything can seem so fast paced in wanting to get to Christmas. Then on the other side, the liturgical side, you have the Advent Season, which has a totally different vibe, if you will, that leads us to Christmas and the birth of our Savior. Advent has been touted as a season of quiet anticipation. I have always liked that description of Advent. It draws us from the hecticness of the holiday season towards what this time of year is really all about. The "why" of this season: Jesus born here on earth.

In an effort to bring home this message, we are going to be doing a special thing to mark the beginning of Advent, and again on Epiphany as the Christmas season comes to an end. The Church invites us to enter into a "quiet anticipation" of the beginning of the Advent and the closing of the Christmas season. What better way to do this than by offering an opportunity of Eucharistic .00 leaving.

On the first weekend of Advent and the last Sunday of the Christmas season, Epiphany, we will end our Masses with Eucharistic Adoration. Instead of a closing hymn, the Eucharist will be processed through each of our churches and we will be invited to spend some time in quiet devotion to Jesus. We will then leave in silence, hopefully just a little more attuned to the "why" of these seasons and how we honor and celebrate them.

I sincerely hope that this simple, yet beautiful, form of prayer brings us to a better understanding of what the "holidays" are truly about.

God bless,

Fr. John

Eucharistic Revival

Advent and Adoration

The season of Advent begins next week!

Advent is about God's promises to always be with us. More than that, it is about God's faithfulness to those promises. We recognize Jesus as the fulfillment of God's ancient promises.

Jesus is God's mercy!

Jesus is the embodiment of God's promises to us:

the promise that God would dwell among us, that God would be one with us,
God's chosen people...

Advent is the season to remember God's ancient promises.

It is the season to see anew the fulfillment of those promises in Jesus the Christ, and to renew our faith in the promise that Christ will return in glory to reign over us, and over all creation. (from Bringing Catechesis and Liturgy Together, Joe Paprocki and D. Todd Williamson)

To begin this beautiful season of prayerful expectation and promise, we will close our Masses next week with Eucharistic Adoration. Instead of the final hymn at each Mass, Fr. John will process (inside church) from the sanctuary to the tabernacle, where consecrated hosts are kept. He will carry the Blessed Sacrament in a luna back to the altar and place it in a monstrance. Using the back cover of our missal as a guide, all will kneel as we respond in prayer and song for this short period. You will be invited to leave in silence, or remain for a few minutes longer for Adoration.
