PARISH VISION STATEMENT:

St. Martin de Porres Parish is a faith community gathering at our worship sites, St. Columba (Caledonia), St. Mary of the Assumption (Scottsville), and St. Vincent de Paul (Churchville), striving to live the sacramental life together through vibrant liturgical worship, loving service, and life-long faith formation for spiritual growth. Through wise use of our gifts, leadership, and shared resources, we are one community of Catholics worshipping our God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Guided by the Holy Spirit, we embrace an atmosphere of belonging and discipleship to make visible the life and work of Jesus Christ.

Divine Mercy Sunday

The Parish of St. Mary Ann Cope invites us to their Divine Mercy Service on Sunday April 7 from 3-4 pm. It will be at the Guardian Angels site 2061 E. Henrietta Rd., Rochester, NY 14623.

It will feature exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, special intercessory prayer, and readings from Scripture and from Saint Faustina's Divine Mercy in My Soul. We know it will be a time of grace and mercy for everyone.

Sacrificial Giving ~ 3/17

Due to early submission date, the collection numbers are not available. They will be reported next week.

Dear Friends

Dear Friends,

Welcome to Holy Week. This weekend we have waved our palms as Jesus was welcomed so long ago when he entered Jerusalem. We ended our Masses with a solemn procession of the Eucharist followed by Adoration.

This week calls us to a time of quiet – a time of prayer. If there is any kind of struggle, it is that we do not let this week take on a feeling of commonplace; a going through the motions to simply reach the joy of Easter.

Much is offered to us this week, as I said, beginning today. Tuesday our diocese will celebrate the Chrism Mass which will take place at 6:00 pm at Sacred Heart Cathedral. During the ceremony, the holy oils used for sacraments and rituals, are blessed and consecrated. If you have never been to a Chrism Mass, I highly encourage you to participate. It is one of the oldest celebrations in our Church.

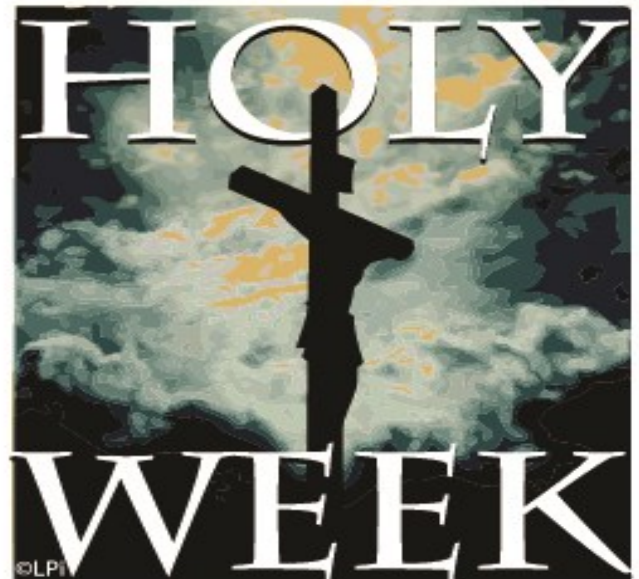

It is in this week that we are able to take a more active participation in the reflection of our faith. Holy Thursday, we witness the washing of the feet. A symbolic gesture our Lord did for his disciples at The Last Supper.

Good Friday we reverence the cross in gratitude for Christ dying for us. At the Easter Vigil, songs as old as the Church are sung and readings leading us up to Jesus from the beginning of time will be read.

And then JOY; Easter joy and celebrations begin. We gather at feasts. We wish blessings upon each others houses. And we sing out a word exclaimed specifically in praise of God. A word that tells us how grateful we should be to be loved by God. Alleluia!

God bless,

Fr. John

Eucharistic Revival

Pope Francis will visit the women's prison at the Rebibbia correctional facility in Rome on Holy Thursday to celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper with people housed there and those who work at the facility. The Vatican made the announcement March 6, according to the National Catholic Reporter, which also reported that this continues a custom Pope Francis has practiced since the start of his pontificate in 2013. Last year, Francis visited a juvenile detention facility where he washed, dried and kissed the feet of 12 people.

Jesus said, "If I, therefore, the master and teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash one another's feet. I have given you a model to follow so that as I have done for you, you should also do."

The ceremony of washing another's feet -- which follows the Gospel account of Jesus washing the feet of his 12 disciples -- "is not something folkloric," the pope said during Holy Thursday Mass in 2023. It is a gesture that shows "how we are to be with one another."

At our own Holy Thursday Mass this year, (St. Mary of the Assumption Church in Scottsville, at 7 pm) Father John, Deacon Pat and Deacon Matt will wash the feet of parishioners, following Jesus's example.
