Mass Intentions		We Should Examine Our Daily Lives
Monday, January 19th		Today's readings provide clear and inspiring reminders of the most fundamental aspect of our identity — that of servants of our most high and holy God, His modern-day disciples, and stewards. John the Baptist recognized the holiness of Jesus and the response due to Him when he encountered Christ in person on the day they met at the Jordan River. His response, which we read in our Gospel passage from St. John was, “Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world... He is the one of whom I said, ‘A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.’” What a powerful description of our Lord and the place He should rightfully have in each of our lives. He is truly our Savior, the only one who can free us from our sinfulness. We are utterly and completely dependent on His power, love, and mercy. Therefore, He truly does “rank ahead” of us; he deserves to be first, above all other priorities and plans in our lives. Let us examine our daily lives and encourage our children to do the same. Does the way I spend my time reflect that God comes first? Do prayer and weekly Mass, regular confession, and time with my family “rank ahead” of everything else on my calendar? Do I use my talents, skills, and energy to serve my family, parish and community in thanksgiving and recognition that God's kingdom ranks ahead of any other goals or ambitions? Do I spend my money and use my material possessions to glorify God? Challenge questions, to be sure. But questions worthy of our high calling as Christian stewards offered a glorious mission in service of our Lord and His kingdom. What will our response be? -copyright: Catholic Stewardship Consultants, www.CatholicSteward.com

MENS RETREAT INFORMATION FOR FEBRUARY 19-22, 2026

Men, we are more than one half the way to filling up all 60 rooms at the Jesuit Retreat House in Oshkosh for our yearly time away for a silent retreat. Dates are still Thursday, February 19th for 7pm Supper through Sunday, February 22nd, 2026 after 11am Mass and lunch. The day after Ash Wednesday and the start to LENT 2026.

This will be here before you know it, time flies. I keep reflecting on why men might want to go on this great time away to be with Our God and Lord Savior. For me, it's easy. The goal of our life is getting welcomed into Heaven. Your 1st time in Heaven will be way greater than your best day ever! Exceeding any experience on earth like winning a lottery, having children, getting married, bowling a 300 game, winning a Super Bowl, getting a golf hole in one, being named Most wonderful person ever, etc.

Going on these silent retreats help you to create a PATHWAY TO HEAVEN. You are invited to join us. Go to the website at www.jesuitretreathouse.org and register with a $100 deposit to hold yourself a lovely room. We are Group #009.

From the Desk of Father Justin

It's Ordinary Time once again, and Christmas is officially over and done with for the remainder of the liturgical year. It is indeed nice to be back to wearing green. I hope you're all back to your usual routines, more or less. December and January can be popular months for travel and vacation, and I am no exception. Like many of my brother priests, January is an ideal time to get away after so much Christmas rush, and a few days in a hermitage at the Redemptorist Retreat Center was a welcome break. Spiritual retreats are not only for priests and they do not have to be complicated – this year was a typical example of that: most of my time (beyond eating and sleeping and all that) was spent with my thoughts and several good books. Even though I brought a big stack of books with me, I only ended up touching two of them. The hermitage had a pocketbook edition of Thoughts In Solitude by Thomas Merton, and that proved to be the best thing of all to read while alone on retreat. I loved the book so much, I finished the hermitage's copy and then ordered a fresh copy for myself on Amazon: it's a book I want on the shelf in my office.

Otherwise, allow me to offer my thanks to everyone who sent me a card or a gift for Christmas this year. I've got a few straggler "thank you" letters to get in the mail, but most of them have been sent by now. If you gave something to me and didn't get a response, please don't take it as a sign of ingratitude from me. Some gifts and cards didn't come with addresses or last names. Some people signed their cards, but I wasn't able to make out who exactly they were. Still other people supplied their full names, but have no available contact information here at the parish. All of that is, of course, in addition to anyone I missed by way of human error and genuine mistakes. I am very grateful that so many of you thought of me during the holiday season. Rest assured that my sugar supply is more than adequate for the rest of winter, and I have many fresh pairs of silly and/or religious socks for the coming year. You all have really kept one of my catch-phrases going this year: "Father Justin, how much money do you spend on your socks?" "How much money?!? I haven't bought a pair of socks in ten years!" Pretty soon I'll need to boost that to fifteen years...

Finally, in terms of messages of Christmas thanksgiving, you all collectively gave me a Marian devotional book for my installation Mass last year. I glanced at it for a minute and then put it on my shelf until January arrived. Now that the new year has begun, I've folded that Marian book into my morning prayer routine, where I take a minute or two to enjoy a daily Marian reflection and prayer. Thanks to all of you – especially those who signed the book somewhere. It was a deeply appropriate way to commemorate the occasion, and I will take advantage of its wisdom every day for the coming year... as its author intended it to be used!

Peace,
Father Justin
