Prayer for St. Joseph Congregation

Lord Jesus Christ, we love you, we adore you and we hope in you. We ask for Your mercy and love to be abundant within St. Joseph Parish. We humbly, yet boldly pray that Your Holy Spirit shower us with wisdom clarity and courage as we discern Your call and Your Will for the revitalization and future of St. Joseph Parish.

Enkindle in us a fire to love, know and serve You like we've never done before and let that fire spread to one another inside and outside the boundaries of St. Joseph. Through intentional reading and praying with Scripture, and by frequent participation in the Sacraments of Holy Eucharist and Reconciliation, may we grow deeper in understanding and love of the treasures of the Catholic Church, so that we may never wander from You. Amen.

Eucharist to the Homebound

If you are planning to take communion to a loved one after Mass -

Before Mass, please leave your pyx (if you have one or we have pyx for you to use) on the table in the Center Street entrance. There you will find paper for you to write your name and number of hosts needed.

After Communion, Father will fill your pyx and call you forward. You will receive your pyx and a blessing to go forth.

Mass Intentions		Gratitude is Powerful
Readings of the Week	Monday, October 13th 7:35am Rosary 8:15am † Sharon Biba	Gratitude is the key to a stewardship way of life. Today's readings demonstrate the power and vital importance of gratitude in the life of the Christian disciple, for gratitude leads us to worship God who offers us salvation.
	Tuesday, October 14th 7:30am The Patriotic Rosary 8:00am Perpetual Help 8:15am Ron & Sue Ross Anniversary † John & Ethel Thomas Anniversary	We see the power of gratitude on display in the Gospel passage from Luke after Jesus heals ten lepers. "And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned." Only one of the ten recognized the tremendous blessing he had received from Jesus and returned to thank him.
	Wednesday, October 15th 7:35am Rosary 8:15am † Fahed Raad	While it's easy to feel indignant at the failure of the nine others to return and thank Jesus, how often do we fail to recognize the blessings, answered prayers, and healings (both physical and spiritual) that the Lord showers upon us, day and night?
	Thursday, October 16th No Mass	The truth is that our very lives and every breath we take are His gift to us. But we can get so caught up in the stresses and distractions of daily life that we lose touch with this truth.
	Friday, October 17th 7:35am Rosary 8:15am † Mel Dreikosen	The Samaritan reacts to his gift of healing with the proper response to our loving God. Recognizing what he had just received from the Lord, he "returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked Him." He was grateful for what God had done for him, and this gratitude led to worship.
	Saturday, October 18th 3:00pm Reconciliation 4:00pm John P. Thomas Jr. † Larry Maloney	And because of this response, Jesus offered him a far more precious gift than physical healing; He offered him the gift of salvation. "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."
	Sunday, October 19th 7:00am Reconciliation 8:00am Don Kresse † Cynthia Gallagher 10:30am Our Parish Family	Too often, we hear the phrase, "Count your blessings," and write it off as nothing more than a trite saying. Today's Gospel shows us otherwise. Gratitude is powerful. It deepens our faith in God and leads us to fitting worship of Him.

St. Vincent de Paul Society
As the Heart of Charity

Would you like to be a Vincentian?

Throughout September, our bulletin contained weekly articles highlighting the work of the St. Vincent de Paul (SVDP) Conference at St. Joe's. As shared in those articles, our parish conference works quietly and compassionately to help our neighbors facing difficult times.

We could always use more hands to carry out this crucial ministry. If you're seeking spiritual growth, new friendships, and the profound joy of serving Christ by helping the poor, please consider joining us. For more information contact Joe Schueller at jschueller@wi.rr.com.

HUMAN CONCERNS COAT COLLECTION

When cleaning out your closets or purchasing new winter outerwear, keep in mind that during October through March, gently used winter coats, jackets, scarves, gloves, mittens and hats are collected on a clothes rack, which will be in the Welcome Center. These articles are donated and delivered to those in need in and around our community. The items should be clean and in good condition.

Thank you for your continued support of this ministry.

From the Desk of Father Justin

Good morning and welcome to the second week of Respect Life month. For my article here, please allow me to stack a bit of embellishment onto last weekend's homily. I put an above-average amount of work and preparation into it, because it's such a critical topic. In short, my grand point was that as Catholics, we really do need to be grounded in the 10 Commandments and other critical teachings of Scripture, and we need to realize that our respect for others has to go beyond any particular group or groups of people. Rather, that respect has to be universal. Scripturally, that's an easy position to defend: Christ teaches us that "love your friends and hate your enemies" is not enough of a moral stand. We really do have to "love our friends and love our enemies." and let go of any "eye for an eye" instincts that we may have within us.

Now, the biggest thing I didn't have time to explain on Sunday was how we respect other people. As disciples of Christ, we do indeed have to respect babies, parents, felons, immigrants, friends, and enemies. The tricky part of life is figuring out exactly what shape that respect takes. We care for babies because they can't care for themselves – that one's pretty easy. We show respect and consideration for our parents and other elders, and we make time for our friends. But what about felons, convicted criminals, or actual enemies? Well, for a start, we respect life when we remember that these people are still human beings made in the image of God. That affords them the sort of basic dignity that everyone deserves.

Still, even beyond basic universal dignity, there are ways to show respect to criminals or people that are sincere dangers to society. No matter who they are or what they've done, they deserve a fair trial. They also deserve to have an appropriate and proportional punishment as consequences for their actions – perhaps you may remember a phrase from your high school civics class: "cruel and unusual punishment." "Cruel and unusual punishment" is never justice, but rather a product of our collective thirst for vengeance –

OCTOBER
RESPECT LIFE MONTH 2025

"Our call to protect and cherish life is rooted not in politics or headlines, but in faith, hope and love."

-ARCHBISHOP JEFFREY S. GROB

October is observed as Respect Life Month. Archbishop Grob's video message shares with us the importance of being pro-life, along with detailing pro-life efforts by Catholics across the Archdiocese of Milwaukee.

To view the video, scan the QR code or follow the link: qrco.de/respectlife2025

ARCHDIOCESE OF MILWAUKEE

those are hardly decisions motivated by the Holy Spirit. Finally, anyone serving time in a correctional facility has the right to have access to their faith: they deserve occasional visits from a priest or other minister, as well as access to their Holy Book. I happen to know that even inmates in high security wings of prisons are permitted a single book, on the grounds that it has religious significance. That privilege can be taken away due to bad behavior, but inmates do have that access to Scripture by default. With these examples as well as others, the concept of "respect" is indeed a factor within the judicial system. We obviously don't (and shouldn't) respect inmates by ignoring the crime or by treating them like other citizens, but there is nevertheless a way to uphold respect and human dignity among literally all walks of life.

Carry on with Respect Life month, and I repeat once again: it's not merely about the unborn, but everyone. If Jesus can love tax collectors, the poorest of the poor, and soldiers of a foreign occupying power, we can love one another by the help of his grace.

-Father Justin
