Use Our Blessings Well

We have been given so many gifts and blessings by our Heavenly Father. Yet, in our fallen state it is all too easy to take them for granted. Our readings today teach us that we must live with an intentional awareness of our many blessings and use them gratefully to glorify God.

In our Gospel passage from Matthew, Jesus uses the image of a vineyard to teach the importance of using our blessings well. He tells the story of a landowner who plants a vineyard and leases it to tenants before he goes on a journey. Instead of tending the vineyard, the tenants mistreat the servants in the vineyard and even the son of the landowner, whom they kill. When the landowner realizes what the tenants have done, he puts them to death and leases his vineyard to tenants who “will give him the produce at the proper times.”

By Baptism, we have received the gift of salvation and membership in the Kingdom of God — we are now “tenants” called to work in the “vineyard” and produce fruit for its owner, our Heavenly Father. Jesus makes it clear that if we squander the gift of salvation, we will lose it. It is a sobering truth.

So, let us use our intellect to think on these gifts throughout the day and resolve to use all our gifts for God’s glory.

Fiscal Year - For the months of Aug and Jul, the parish had revenues of $319,449, behind budget by $26,485, primarily a result of lower than expected offertory. Over the same time frame, actuals expenses were $382,085, which were less than budget by $10,178 primarily from lower salary and benefits of $48,130 partially offset by higher supplies expense of $19,955 and buildings and grounds expense of $19,032. Operating deficit was $62,636, $16,307 worse than expected.

From the Desk of Father Justin

Welcome, one and all, to October: Respect Life Month. We were all asked by Archbishop Grob to be fully invested in this year's efforts in this way. I will spend this weekend (October 3rd and 4th) on the MAID program and how we are called to respect the elderly and those near death. Protection of the unborn is the Pro-Life subtopic that gets the most of our attention and zeal. Beyond that, we are also called to respect the needs of the underprivileged, the alienated and/or marginalized, the homeless, the needy, and those who do not share our language or culture. In short, to be Pro-Life is to be Pro-Human and recognize that every human being matters and is a sacred child of God, destined for salvation through Jesus Christ.

Sure, that's a remarkably Catholic spin to it. There are plenty of people who are Pro-Life but not religious, and they'd probably define the term differently. That's totally fine. But for us, as Catholics, there is most certainly a faith component to the matter - regardless of how many people recognize it or not. If we are made in the image of God and truly saved by Jesus Christ, then we need to seriously consider the inherent and non-negotiable glory that resides in each and every human life. There can be no exceptions. Sure, all people are different, and some people need tougher love than others. Just ask any parent with two or more kids: they're all loved, but require different kinds of parenting between them. Still, just as the love of a parent is non-negotiable for all their children, the love of God is non-negotiable for all people the world over. As disciples and ambassadors of Christ, we are therefore called to reflect that love as best as we possibly can in our daily lives.

In a way, when I hear the words "Pro-Life", I automatically connect it to the idea of optimism. A great, if unofficial, explanation of optimism is this: to be an optimist is to be willing to bet on people and on society. Expanding on that a bit, to be an optimist means recognizing opportunity and potential more often than not. "Yeah, let's give it a try," says the optimist, "in spite of the flaws or weaknesses of the plan, let's see how things play out." Naturally, the pessimist is the opposite approach: "there are flaws and weaknesses in the plan, we better hold off until there's more of a guarantee of success." With that context in mind, to be Pro-Life is to be optimistic with respect to people. Indeed, to be optimistic with respect to life itself.

Peace,
Father Justin

St. Joseph Congregation Love One Another Campaign Update

Well, believe it or not our Love One Another campaign and your generous pledges started almost 3 ¾ years ago. We are due to have all pledges in by the end of calendar year 2027, only 15 months from now.

Here is the update from the Archdiocese of Milwaukee:

Our goal was $1,311,000 and we met that goal.

As stated, our Parish receives quarterly payments based on the pledges received at the Arch. The generous members of our Parish have sent in just under 75% of that goal so far. St. Joseph's has received our 60% of that so far.

We again give you our heartfelt THANK YOU to you all who have pledged. Please do what you can to complete your pledge if you haven't yet done so.

We plan to use these funds to update the Church lighting, carpeting, refinish the pews and replace the kneelers, which will be a very exciting project for the parish!

Thank you all for being a part of this fantastic community, and may God bless you all.

St. Joseph, pray for us.

Fr. Justin Lopina, Pastor Mark Frederick, Campaign Chair

ARCHDIOCESE of MILWAUKEE

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On this Respect Life Sunday, we are invited to reflect on the sacredness and dignity of every human life.

This year, I want to draw your attention to an issue gaining momentum throughout the world and here in the United States: the legalization of assisted suicide. Legislation to make assisted suicide legal was passed in Illinois last year and has recently been proposed here in Wisconsin. It is an issue that deserves the attention of every Catholic.

The Catholic Church teaches that intentionally causing the death of an innocent person is always wrong, regardless of the circumstances or the person's condition. Our lives are gifts from God, and our worth does not depend upon our health, independence, productivity, or ability to avoid suffering. We remain beloved sons and daughters of God when we are seriously ill, disabled, elderly, or approaching death.

For this reason, the Church cannot support assisted suicide. At the same time, our response must be about more than public policy. We must ask: How can we better accompany people who are suffering and support those who are caring for them?

When someone is facing serious or terminal illness, that person needs to know that he or she is not a burden. Families need support. Patients need compassionate medical care, including appropriate palliative and hospice care, that seeks to relieve suffering while respecting the dignity of the person. No one should feel that death is the only way to escape pain, loneliness, or fear.

We know that suffering and death do not have the final word. Jesus Christ entered fully into human suffering and death, and through his Resurrection transformed them. In Christ, even the hour of death is illuminated by the promise of eternal life.

I encourage every Catholic to take time to learn more about assisted suicide and the Church's teaching on human dignity, compassionate care, and end-of-life decisions. Throughout October, the Archdiocese of Milwaukee will offer information and opportunities for reflection, including presentations at parishes throughout the archdiocese. Watch our social media and your parish bulletin for details, and visit the archdiocese website to learn more.

Join me in praying for all who face serious illness, those who care for them, and those who mourn the loss of a loved one. May the Lord give us the courage and compassion to protect life, accompany those who suffer, and proclaim with confidence the hope of the Resurrection.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Jeffrey S. Grob

PUBLIC SQUARE Rosary Rally

On October 13, 1917, Our Lady performed the Miracle of the Sun, witnessed by 70,000 people at Fatima, including atheists, communists and anti-Catholics (leading many to convert).

To honors this miracle, which occurred around noontime, and to show Our Lady we hear her request to stop offending God by our sins, we are hosting a public rosary rally SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10 at NOON.

We know our sins have caused America to suffer a societal collapse - and we know we must urgently stop sinning if we hope to enjoy God's blessings and to avert His wrath. He will hear us, if we pray through the intercession of His Blessed Mother.

In The Secret of the Rosary, Saint Louis de Monfort said "Public prayer is far more powerful than private prayer to appease the anger of God and call down His mercy, and Holy Mother Church, guided by the Holy Ghost, has always advocated public prayer in times of public tragedy and suffering."
